WAKE COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC (WCGS) was organized in April 1982 to promote genealogical study and research, to serve as a medium of exchange of genealogical or historical information, to encourage the preservation of genealogical or historical records, to provide cultural, educational, and social opportunities involving genealogy. In 1983 WCGS was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the laws of the State of North Carolina.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership is open to anyone with an interest in the purposes of WCGS as stated above. The membership year is from January 1 through December 31. Annual dues for new members are $20.00 for individuals and institutions and $25.00 for families (two people, related by blood or marriage residing at the same address). A former charter member can rejoin for a fee of $15.00 - a one-time option.

MEETINGS: WCGS meets on the fourth Tuesday of each month except in June, July, August, and December. Meetings begin at 7:00 PM and visitors are welcomed. The current meeting place is Westover United Methodist Church, 300 Powell Dr, Raleigh, NC.

CORRESPONDENCE: All correspondence should be sent to WCGS, PO Box 17713, Raleigh, NC 27619-7713. For a fee of $5.00, you may request up to one hour of research by the "Please Help Me" Committee.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS: Please notify WCGS of a change of address as soon as it is known so that your journals and other WCGS communications will reach you in a timely manner. There is a $3.00 charge for remailing returned journals. Postage costs for returns have more than doubled since October 1995 and continue to increase in small increments.

WAKE TREASURES is the journal of WCGS and is free to members. One copy is sent for each Family Membership. Bi-annual issues are identified as Winter/Spring, and Summer/Fall.

EDITORIAL POLICY: Emphasis will be on unpublished, primary source documents with historical or genealogical significance for Wake County, NC. Primary source documents from counties from which large numbers of inhabitants migrated into Wake County may be used provided there is no Genealogical or Historical Society serving that county. Articles emphasizing methodology, instructions and "lessons learned" will be welcomed. Manuscripts about Wake County residents, past and present will be accepted. Wake County family cemetery surveys and Bible records will be used as space allows. Articles will reflect a balance regarding time periods and needs of both the novice and the experienced genealogists.

Manuscripts submitted will be judged on style, clarity, consistency, documentation and general appeal to the membership. References used to compile the manuscript must be included. (Send SASE to Editor for guidelines.)

Book reviews will be published for authors or publishers who donate the book to the WCGS library and for publications recommended by members which are pertinent to Wake County or of general genealogical interest. Books are then donated by the society to the Olivia Raney Library.

Neither WCGS nor the Journal Committee shall be held responsible for content, punctuation and/or spelling errors in manuscripts. Such errors are the sole responsibility of the contributor. Documented corrections of content errors, submitted to the Journal Editor, will appear in a later issue.

QUERIES: Members may submit an unlimited number of queries at no additional charge. Queries are accepted from non-members at $2.00 per query. For an extra $5.00, non-members can request a copy of the journal in which their paid queries were included. It is helpful when queries are submitted on a Wake Treasures Query Form. Queries are subject to editing and will be printed as space permits. Requests for Query Forms (send a SASE) and query submissions should be addressed to Query Editor at the address printed above. You may also xerox the query form in the insert placed in the center of the journal when more than one copy is needed.

PERMISSION TO QUOTE: Permission to reproduce or quote from an article published in any issue of Wake Treasures must be obtained in writing from the author(s). Write to the specific author in care of the WCGS address above.

Confederate Applications for Pardons – Wake County

By Russell S. Koonts

[Note: Mr. Koonts, Senior Reference Archivist in the Reference Unit of the NC Archives, is preparing an Index to the North Carolina Confederate applications for pardons (sometimes referred to as "amnesty papers") which will contain information from applications for all North Carolina counties. The Editor thanks "Rusty" for so generously sharing with us the section on Wake County.]

President Abraham LINCOLN's policy at the end of the Civil War had been to extend "oblivion and forgiveness" to the former insurgents on conditions of renewed allegiance. He introduced this policy in a proclamation on December 8, 1863, that offered a limited pardon to those "in rebellion against the United States Government." To satisfy the conditions of this proclamation, all applicants were required to take an oath of allegiance. Once a person took the oath, all his rights of property were restored to him with the exception of slaves and other property where a third party had instigated suit for confiscation. This general pardon covered all persons except those who had held civil office under the Confederate Government and those who had mistreated prisoners of war.[1]

With the death of LINCOLN, the task of reunification fell upon the new president, Andrew JOHNSON, who attempted to reconstruct the union of states that had existed prior to 1860. On 29 May 1865, President JOHNSON formally began his policy of reconstruction by issuing his first of four proclamations concerning pardons. In his declaration, he continued LINCOLN's general amnesty and pardon to those who had been engaged in rebellion against the United States Government, but with more specifications. It required each person wishing to take advantage of the general amnesty to swear (or affirm) their allegiance to the United States government, to be registered for permanent registration, by subscribing to the following oath:

> "I, _____ _____, do solemnly swear, (or affirm,) in presence of Almighty God, that I will henceforth faithfully support, protect, and defend the Constitution of the United States, and the Union of the States thereunder; and that I will, in like manner, abide by and faithfully support all laws and proclamations which have been made during the late rebellion with reference to the emancipation of slaves: So help me God."[2]

JOHNSON's proclamation listed fourteen classes of individuals who were not covered by the general provisions. Individuals who fell into one or more of these categories were required to apply to the President for a special pardon.[3] The exemptions read:

> The following classes of persons are exempted from the benefits of this Proclamation:
> 1st. All who are or shall have been pretended civil or diplomatic officers, or otherwise domestic or foreign agents, of the pretended confederate government;
> 2nd. All who left judicial stations under the United States to aid the rebellion;
> 3rd. All who shall have been military or naval officers of said pretended confederate government above the rank of colonel in the army or lieutenant in the navy;
> 4th. All who left seats in the Congress of the United States to aid the rebellion;
> 5th. All who resigned or tendered resignations of their commissions in the army or navy of the United States to evade duty in resisting the rebellion;

6th. All who have engaged in any way in treating otherwise than lawfully as prisoners of war persons found in the United States service; as officers, soldiers, seamen, or in other capacities;

7th. All persons who have been, or are, absentees from the United States for the purpose of aiding the rebellion;

8th. All military and naval officers in the rebel service, who were educated by the government in the Military Academy at West Point or in the United States Naval Academy;

9th. All person who held the pretended offices of governors of states in insurrection against the United States;

10th. All persons who left their homes within the jurisdiction and protection of the United States, and passed beyond the federal military lines into the pretended confederate states for the purpose of aiding the rebellion;

11th. All persons who have been engaged in the destruction of the commerce of the United States upon the high seas, and all persons who have made raids into the United States from Canada, or been engaged in destroying the commerce of the United States upon the lakes and rivers that separate the British Provinces from the United States;

12th. All persons who, at the time when they seek to obtain the benefits hereof by taking the oath herein prescribed, are in military, naval, or civil confinement, or custody, or under bonds of the civil, military, or naval authorities, or agents of the United States as prisoners of war, or persons detained for offenses of any kind, either before or after conviction;

13th. All person who have voluntarily participated in said rebellion, and the estimated value of whose taxable property is over twenty thousand dollars;

14th. All persons who have taken the oath of amnesty as prescribed in the President's Proclamation of December 8th, A.D. 1863, or an oath of allegiance to the government of the United States since the date of said Proclamation, and who have not thenceforward kept and maintained the same inviolate.

Provided, That special application may be made to the President for pardon by any person belonging to the excepted classes; and such clemency will be liberally extended as may be consistent with the facts of the case and the peace and dignity of the United States.[4]

On 7 September 1867, JOHNSON issued his second proclamation concerning amnesty. This time, he lowered the number of exemptions to three. These three classes were as follow:

The following persons, and no others, are excluded from the benefits of this proclamation, and of the said proclamation of the twenty-ninth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, namely:

First. The chief or pretended chief executive officers, including the President, the Vice-President, and all Heads of Departments of the pretended Confederate or Rebel Government, and all who were agents thereof in foreign States and countries, and all who held, or pretended to hold, in the service of the said pretended Confederate Government, a military rank or title above the grade of brigadier-general, or naval rank or title above that of captain, and all who were pretended to be Governors of States, while maintaining, aiding, and abetting, or submitting to and acquiescing in the rebellion.

Second. All persons who in any way treated otherwise than as lawful prisoners of war persons who in any capacity were employed or engaged in the military or naval service of the United States.

Third. All person who, at the time they may seek to obtain the benefits of this proclamation, are actually in civil, military, or naval confinement or custody, or legally held to bail, either before or after conviction, all person who were engaged directly or indirectly in the assassination of the late President of the United States, or in any plot or conspiracy in any manner therewith connected.[5]

The next proclamation came on 4 July 1868, when JOHNSON issued a full and unconditional pardon to all former "rebels" with the exception of about three hundred men, who were then "under presentment or indictment in any court of the United States upon a charge of treason or other felony.[6] Finally, JOHNSON extended a final pardon to these individuals on 25 December 1868.[7]

The Civil War pardon applications for North Carolina residents are on file at the NC Archives and consist of negative photostatic copies of the originals which are on file at the National Archives. In the NC Archives, the files are arranged first by county and then alphabetically by applicants' last names. The files contain correspondence, affidavits, certifications, etc. relating to the individual petitioner and his reason for the application (i.e., what class of exemption).

For Wake County, there are 101 such individual applications. These are listed below in alphabetical order by name of the applicant and with the reason for the application:

James Fauntelroy Taylor

Submitted by Betty J. Baker

Source: J. H. Wheeler, Historical Sketches of North Carolina, From 1584 to 1851, Philadelphia: Lippincott, Grambo and Co., 1851, pp. 85 and 416.

James Fauntelroy TAYLOR, late Attorney-General, lived, and died in Raleigh. He was a native of Chatham County. He was a son of Captain Philip TAYLOR, of the revolutionary army. He was born July, 1791. His early education was conducted by Wm. BINGHAM, in Orange County. He graduated at Chapel Hill in 1810; studied law with Chief Justice TAYLOR; licensed in 1812; elected a member of the House of Commons from Wake County in 1823; elected Attorney-General in 1825; and died June, 1828, leaving a widow and several children; one of whom (the only son), is the present Librarian of the State, at Raleigh, and one of the daughters, wife of Perrin BUSBEE, Esq., of Raleigh.

Mr. TAYLOR was blessed with a clear, discriminating intellect, improved by all the advantages of the age. His talents were of a high order, and duly appreciated by his country. In the administration of the criminal law, while the guilty had nothing to hope, the oppressed and innocent had nothing to fear. He was loved by all who knew him for his generous and social qualities, and had his career not terminated, at so early an age, it would have been brilliant to his own fame and useful to the State. When the cruel hand of death enters and destroys such bright prospects and glowing hopes, we feel, with BURKE, "the vanity of all earthly pursuits, and what shadows we are, and what shadows we pursue."

Updates From NC Archives

By Ed Morris, Supervisor
Reference Unit, NC Archives and History

Recently, members of Captain Samuel A. Ashe Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy have contributed the following microfilm to the NC Archives' collection:

- Records Relating to Confederate Naval and Marine Personnel (8 rolls) – This series reproduces records relating to individuals serving in the Confederate Navy and Marine Corps. These records are in three series.

Compiled Hospital and Prison Records of Naval and Marine Personnel – arranged alphabetically by surname of sailor or marine, consists of cards containing abstracts of entries relating to the individual in Union and Confederate hospital registers, prescription books, and Union prison and parole rolls. It also includes original papers, primarily from prison records, relating to individuals.

Please note that although included in the index, the microfilm of the actual compiled records of this latter group, Compiled Service Records of Confederate General and Staff Officers, and Non-Regimental Enlisted Men (275 rolls) is not in the NC Archives at this time.

[Note: This list, as abstracted by Kay Whaley, was published in a 1985 issue of the WCGS newsletter. It is being reprinted in the current format in order to keep the lists in chronological order. There is neither a captain's name nor a date on this list. The recorder did not include columns for stud horses, carriage wheels of pleasure, or town lots (as found on other 1793 forms) but he made notes about these items beside certain names. His comments are recorded here under our "Notes" column.]

Keep an Open Mind!

By Charlotte R. Carrére

Remember the adage, “a historian does not have to be a genealogist – but a genealogist must be a historian”? The more insight you have into the events which shaped your ancestors’ lives, the more you will be able to put yourself into his/her place – and the more likely you are to be successful in your research. NEVER be satisfied with one date or one name from one source. To do so is to commit the unpardonable sin in genealogy. Clues are often overlooked by the blinders you wear. Grandmother said thus and so and, on this premise, you refuse to open your mind to other possibilities.

A New Lineage Society
Order of the First World War

By James D. Partin

The objects of this Order are declared to be patriotic, historical, and educational, and shall include those intended or designed to perpetuate the memory of those men and women who rendered honorable service for their country; to promote fellowship among their descendants; to inspire them and the community-at-large with a more profound reverence for the heritage, deeds, and memory of our ancestors; to encourage historical research; to acquire and preserve the records of their individual services, as well as documents, relics, and landmarks; to mark the scenes of the fallen soldiers by appropriate memorials; to celebrate the anniversaries of the prominent events of their time period; to foster true patriotism; to maintain and extend the institutions of freedom.

Any man or woman shall be eligible for membership in the Order who, being a citizen of good repute in the community, is the lineal or collateral descendant, in the male or female line, of an ancestor, man or woman, who served in the Great War for Civilization, who was at all times unfailing in loyalty to, and rendered active service in the cause for his/her country. The dates of official American involvement in the First World War were 1917-1918, but this Order is open to anyone with an ancestor who served from any country involved in the war from the year 1914 A.D. through the year 1918 A.D.

Membership – Application for membership shall be made upon duplicate blank forms prescribed by the Order, and shall in each case set forth the name, residence and services of his/her ancestor or ancestors in the First World War from whom he/she claims eligibility.

An applicant for membership shall make oath that the statements in his/her application are true to the best of his/her knowledge and belief. The applicant shall send such application, together with the admission dues, to the Registrar of the Order, who shall examine the claims of the applicant for eligibility; and no applicant shall be admitted to membership until the Registrar of the Order approves.

Each member of the Order shall be entitled to a certificate of membership, duly attested by the Commander of the Order and the Secretary of the Order, to which shall be affixed the seal of the Order.

Whenever an applicant for membership in the Order is a lineal descendant of a present or former member of the Order whose application contains definite authority for the ancestor of that present member having been eligible for the Order of the First World War, it shall only be necessary to establish his/her descent from such present or former member and include such member's National Number, provided that proofs satisfactory to the Registrar of the Order are in his/her files to establish the line of descent from the ancestor to the present or former member.

Fees and Dues – The admission dues for Life Membership in the Order shall be one hundred dollars ($100). A fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) shall accompany each supplemental claim for additional ancestral lines.

The badge of the Order may be purchased for fifty dollars ($50) by any member. A five-pointed star may be purchased and displayed on the ribbon supporting the insignia at ratio of one star for each supplemental application.

During the Charter Membership Period (November 11, 1993 through November 11, 1994), there will be no charge for the Badge of the Order and the Ancestral Certificate. After the charter membership period ends, the Badge of the Order will be sold separately from the membership application fee.

Who's in the News – 1864 (Part 1)

Abstracted by Laura J. Alley

The North Carolina Standard - Weekly

Wednesday, January 6

- Died, of Measles, in Poplar Lawn Hospital, Petersburg, Va., on the 21st day of August, 1863, Mr. Lunsford P. LASHLEY, in the 21st year of his age. He was a Volunteer in Co. I, 41st? Reg't. N.C. Calvary and was beloved by all his comrades in arms. He has left a widowed mother, a brother and sister, together with many dear relatives and friends to mourn their loss … His widowed mother, and bereaved family visited his grave in Virginia, and his remains disinterred and brought home to the family graveyard, where he now sleeps beside his father.

- A CARD – We take this method of saying to our numerous patrons throughout the State and elsewhere, that owing to a very destructive fire that destroyed our Foundry and Shops thereunto connected, we will not be able to meet our engagements in way of machinery for some time; but hope by renewed energy and industry we can fill former contracts for castings. Also, new orders from any pattern (as they were not burned,) in two or three weeks. DIXON, ALBRIGHT & Co. Jan. 4, 1864.

- Capt. Joseph A. WILLIAMS departed this life the 23d day of November, 1863, at the capital city of the Southern Confederacy, of wounds received in battle, in the 24th year of his age. The death of this young and promising officer, deserved a more extended notice than the above announcement, and although unable to do justice to his memory, I am constrained by personal friendship, to add my testimony of his worth, both in civil and military life. Joseph Adrian WILLIAMS was born in Pitt county, North Carolina, in the year 1839. His father, Dr. Robert WILLIAMS, was a native North-Carolinian, and at an early age established a reputation as a physician, scarcely inferior to any in the State. His grandfather, also a physician of no small repute, was a surgeon in our army during the war with our mother country. His mother was a Miss DRAKE, an accomplished and gifted lady … His youthful training was commenced at home under the tuition of Mr. James MURRAY, a learned scholar and an experienced teacher, and completed at the University of his native State in the summer of 1859 … He received two severe wounds upon the ill-fated field of Bristow Station, Va., Oct. 14th 1863. His Surgeon pronounced them mortal, but he lived so long that hopes were entertained of his recovery. He was removed to Richmond as soon as possible, where, after lingering for about 6 weeks _____ [illegible] … R.W.J.

- Died, in this City, on the 10th inst., Mr. Henry A. DEPKIN, aged 38 years. His funeral will take place at the Baptist Church, on Tuesday, at 10 o'clock. The friends and acquaintances of the deceased are respectfully requested to attend.

- NOTICE – I hereby forewarn all persons from having any dealings with Edith Ann UTLEY, (once my wife,) as I shall not hold myself responsible for any acts of hers. I further notify all concerned, that I shall apply at the next term of the Superior Court for a bill of divorcement. Wm. W. UTLEY Jan. 19, 1864.

- NORTH CAROLINA TROOPS RE ENLISTING FOR THE WAR – A telegraphic despatch has been received at the War Office, conveying the gratifying intelligence that the Brigade of Gen. - Died, at the Hospital, in Raleigh, on the 7th of January, 1864, Joseph TUCKER, of MALLETT's Battalion, in the 18th year of his age. He had entered service about three months previous to his death – was taken ill with the measles which soon terminated his short but glorious career … his body now lies in the family burying ground.

Wednesday, February 10

- FIRE – We regret to state that the residence of Mr. HOLT, the Sexton to the Graveyard in this City, was accidentally burned upon the morning of Thursday the 4th instant. The fire company appeared promptly upon the scene of action and rendered valuable assistance.

Wednesday, February 17

- ESCAPE OF PRISONERS – One hundred and nine officers, including Col. STRAIGHT, escaped from the Libly prison, in Richmond, on the night of the 9th, through a tunnel sixty feet long, opening into a vacant lot on the opposite side of the street. No blame is attached to the sentinels. Only one officer was recaptured.
- Married, at the residence of the bride's father, on the 4th Feb. 1864, by L. W. HOOD, Esq., Mr. B. E. SCARBOROUGH of Co. H. 31st Reg't. N.C.T. to Miss S. A. E. ELLIS, all of Wake County.

- Died, at his residence, in this City, on Saturday last, Mr. H. L. EVANS, Merchant of this place, in the 42nd year of his age – a highly respectable and worthy citizen.
- Died, in this City of Raleigh, on Sunday last, after a lingering illness, A. G. DRAKE, Esq.
- Died, near New Hill, N.C., on the 24th of December 1863, Tabitha, eldest daughter of James and Sarah A. ENNIS, in the 8th year of her age.

- NOBLE LITTLE GIRL – Miss Rebecca COX, of Amite County, Mississippi, a little girl of about thirteen years of age, has sent to our soldiers within the past two years, over two hundred yards of jeans, several home made blankets, and many pair of socks, mostly the work of her own fair hands. She has set a most noble example and deserves much praise.

Wednesday, February 24

- There was snow at Richmond and in northern Virginia a few days ago, which accounts for the present very cold winter here at this time. The late rain was much needed, and it is hoped will prove beneficial to the wheat.

Spirit of the Age

[Monday] February 15, 1864

- We learn that a bear was killed in this County on Saturday last, by Mr. Caleb PENNY, about ten miles from this place. He weighed 159 pounds gross and 127 nett. His meat was sold in the Raleigh market on Monday morning.

- A line of telegraph has been established between Fayetteville and Raleigh.

- A SMALL FARM FOR SALE. Within two miles of Raleigh, on the Haywood road. There is a new framed dwelling, with two good sized rooms and a kitchen. On another part of the land is a comfortable log dwelling. The whole contains 31 acres – 12 acres cleared and under a good fence – the balance has a flourishing growth of young pine, oak and hickoryCwith some large pine trees. For terms, enquire with W. M. M. BROWN, Spirit of the Age Office.

[Wednesday] February 24

- The publication of the N.C. Standard, is suspended for the present.

- DISTRESSING ACCIDENT – The Confederate of Monday says:
  On Friday night last, Mrs. Ava A. REEVES of this city, was so shockingly burned as to cause death in a few hours. The fire accidentally communicated to her clothing and before assistance could be extended, she was burnt in the most shocking manner. Young, lovely, the idol of her husband and family, she has thus suddenly been taken from their embrace. Truly in the midst of life we are in death. The deceased was the daughter of Mr. Seawell LITTLE, Steward of the Institute for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind of this city. We truly sympathize with the afflicted family in their heavy bereavement.

- Died, in this City, on the 24th inst., Mrs. Elizabeth WATSON, wife of Mr. William WATSON, aged 43 years.

- Died, on the 8th of Feb. 1864, at the residence of her Grand Pa in Wake County, N.C. of remittent fever, Miss Roxana JOHNSON, aged 15 years and 11 days. She had been feeble in health for two years and was confined to her bed about three weeks previous to her death … She was an affectionate daughter and a loving sister; has left a kind Mother, two sisters, an only brother and many relatives to mourn their irreparable loss, but their loss is her eternal gain …

Saturday, November 12

- Died, very suddenly, on the 14th ult., at Weldon, N.C., Mrs. Catherine Belknap CLARKE, of this city, relict of W. F. CLARKE, deceased, in the 58th year of her age … All who knew this estimable 'mother to? Israel,' feel that she has gone to receive the rewards of a life of exemplary piety. She went about doing good; and the poor and the friendless will sadly miss one who visited them in their affliction, and ministered unto them; while the sick and wounded soldiers, in our hospitals, will mourn for the motherly old lady whose kind and considerate attentions soothed their sufferings.
