WAKE COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC (WCGS) was organized in April 1982 to promote genealogical study and research, to serve as a medium of exchange of genealogical or historical information, to encourage the preservation of genealogical or historical records, to provide cultural, educational, and social opportunities involving genealogy. In 1983 WCGS was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the laws of the State of North Carolina.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership is open to anyone with an interest in the purposes of WCGS as stated above. The membership year is from January 1 through December 31. Annual dues for new members are $20.00 for individuals and institutions and $25.00 for families (two people, related by blood or marriage residing at the same address). A former charter member can rejoin for a fee of $15.00 - a one-time option.

MEETINGS: WCGS meets on the fourth Tuesday of each month except in June, July, August, and December. Meetings begin at 7:00 PM and visitors are welcomed. The current meeting place is Westover United Methodist Church, 300 Powell Dr, Raleigh, NC.

CORRESPONDENCE: All correspondence should be sent to WCGS, PO Box 17713, Raleigh, NC 27619-7713. For a fee of $5.00, you may request up to one hour of research by the "Please Help Me" Committee.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS: Please notify WCGS of a change of address as soon as it is known so that your journals and other WCGS communications will reach you in a timely manner. There is a $3.00 charge for remailing returned journals. Postage costs for returns have more than doubled since October 1995 and continue to increase in small increments.

WAKE TREASURES is the journal of WCGS and is free to members. One copy is sent for each Family Membership. Bi-annual issues are identified as Winter/Spring, and Summer/Fall.

EDITORIAL POLICY: Emphasis will be on unpublished, primary source documents with historical or genealogical significance for Wake County, NC. Primary source documents from counties from which large numbers of inhabitants migrated into Wake County may be used provided there is no Genealogical or Historical Society serving that county. Articles emphasizing methodology, instructions and "lessons learned" will be welcomed. Manuscripts about Wake County residents, past and present will be accepted. Wake County family cemetery surveys and Bible records will be used as space allows. Articles will reflect a balance regarding time periods and needs of both the novice and the experienced genealogists.

Manuscripts submitted will be judged on style, clarity, consistency, documentation and general appeal to the membership. References used to compile the manuscript must be included. (Send SASE to Editor for guidelines.)

Book reviews will be published for authors or publishers who donate the book to the WCGS library and for publications recommended by members which are pertinent to Wake County or of general genealogical interest. Books are then donated by the society to the Olivia Raney Library.

Neither WCGS nor the Journal Committee shall be held responsible for content, punctuation and/or spelling errors in manuscripts. Such errors are the sole responsibility of the contributor. Documented corrections of content errors, submitted to the Journal Editor, will appear in a later issue.

QUERIES: Members may submit an unlimited number of queries at no additional charge. Queries are accepted from non-members at $2.00 per query. For an extra $5.00, non-members can request a copy of the journal in which their paid queries were included. It is helpful when queries are submitted on a Wake Treasures Query Form. Queries are subject to editing and will be printed as space permits. Requests for Query Forms (send a SASE) and query submissions should be addressed to Query Editor at the address printed above. You may also xerox the query form in the insert placed in the center of the journal when more than one copy is needed.

PERMISSION TO QUOTE: Permission to reproduce or quote from an article published in any issue of Wake Treasures must be obtained in writing from the author(s). Write to the specific author in care of the WCGS address above.

BACK ISSUES: Past issues of Wake Treasures are sold only in volume sets. Volumes I through V are now available. See insert for price and other details.

From the Editor:

With this issue comes some sad news and some glad news.

SAD NEWS: We announce, with regret, the resignation of Lynne White Belvin as co-editor of Wake Treasures. As long-standing WCGS members know, it was through Lynne's efforts that the WCGS Newsletter grew into the Wake Treasures journal. Only those intricately involved with the publishing of a journal can truly appreciate the voluminous amount of volunteer hours Lynne has contributed, first as editor of the WCGS Newsletter (1988-1990), as editor of Wake Treasures (1990-1992), and as co-editor (1993). WCGS owes a debt of gratitude to Lynne for this and her other many volunteer contributions to the Society.

GLAD NEWS: Lynne will remain a member of the journal committee.

SAD NEWS: Wake Treasurers is losing another committee member, this time through migration. Laura Alley and her husband are moving to Goldsboro, and Wake County's loss will be Wayne County's gain. Laura not only designed the cover for Wake Treasurers, but also has served as Query Editor and has written the "Who's in the News" column since 1990. The genealogical society in that area will be fortunate to have this new, energetic member coming their way.

GLAD NEWS: Laura has already submitted "Who's in the News" articles for the remaining two 1994 issues!

Many thanks to both of these fine ladies!

Styles Used in Abstracts and Transcriptions

In an attempt to provide consistency throughout Wake Treasures, the Journal Committee has adopted the following styles to be used in all abstracts or transcriptions.

[Note: Last summer Mrs. Grace W. Turner of Wilson, NC, who is not a WCGS member, graciously sent us transcriptions of the following documents. Mrs. Turner wrote that said several years ago she found these documents while visiting at the Virginia archives. She transcribed them, retaining the original spelling and punctuation, in the hope they would be of help to some of our WCGS members. We sincerely thank Mrs. Turner for her thoughtfulness.]

Petition of William Wynne
Of
Wake County, NC

To the honorable speaker and other members of the house of Delegates of the Commonwealth of Virginia, the petition of William WYNNE a citizen of the County of Wake in the State of North Carolina respectfully represents, that he is the Eldest son and (according to the former law) heir at law of Matthew WYNNE of Sussex County in this State, who was the eldest son and heir at law of Slowman WYNNE of the same county of Sussex; that the said Slowman WYNNE by his last will and testament recorded in the court of the said County of Sussex, of which an authenticated copy is herewith exhibited, among other devises & gifts, devised and bequeaths to his daughter Elizabeth WYNNE and her son Robert WYNNE as followeth, that is to say, "I also lend to my said daughter (after the decease of my beloved wife) for and during the term of her natural life, one negroe girl named Hannah, and after the decease of my said wife and daughter, I give and devise the said negroe with her increase to my grandson Robert WYNNE, son of my said daughter Elizabeth to him and his heirs forever."

Your petitioner begs leave further to shew, that the widow of the said testator survived him but a short time; and that the said Robert WYNNE, in whom the right and title to the said Hannah and her future increase were vested indefeasibly in interest though not in actual possession departed this life the eleventh day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy six, intestate and without lawful issue, having never been married, leaving his mother still living and married to a certain Samuel ROTTENBERRY who then held the said negroe woman Hannah and her children; that his mother survived him many years, having not departed this life until the year 1802. But though the said Elizabeth had only an estate or interest for her life in the said negroe woman Hannah and her children, yet her husband the said Samuel ROTTENBERRY, undertook to dispose of absolutely, & did actually sell, the said negroe woman Hannah and all her children (who were seven or eight in number) in the lifetime of his wife; that he sold them in different parts, though in contiguous counties of the State to different purchasers, who knew the defect of his title, & and could not have been ignorant thereof, without extreme and inexcuseable negligence. Your petitioner further respectfully states that he is advised that on the death of the said Robert WYNNE intestate and without lawful issue the right & title to the said negroe woman Hannah and her descendants vested in the Commonwealth for the following reasons: first, because Slaves were then real estate and cases of intestacy descended as such to the heirs at law of the intestate; second because the said Robert WYNNE was a natural child of the said Elizabeth, and by the common law which was in full force in Virginia, he had no legal heir and consequently the title of the slaves must have escheated to the Commonwealth for want of legal heirs, unless it reverted back to the original donor, a doctrine which it is believed cannot be supported.

Your petitioner further represents, that according to the old law under which the said Robert WYNNE held the title to the said slaves and which was in force when he died, your petitioner was not only the heir at law of the original grantor Slowman WYNNE but if the said Robert had been legitimate & had heritable blood in his veins, would have been his heir at law also, as the eldest son of Matthew WYNNE was(?) heir at law of his father Slowman WYNNE and the oldest male uncle of the said Robert WYNNE and consequently if the title of the Commonwealth did not interpose, the said Slaves would by law be vested in your petitioner; the value of the property is so trivial & insignificant; that he is persuaded that the magnanimity & generosity of the Commonwealth will not permit it to avail itself of the title, or to contend with an individual standing in the same re__ to the original proprietor from whom the public devise (?) their title to the Slaves, as your petitioner does to the said Robert WYNNE for however unimportant and trifling the value of those slaves is Commonwealth, it would be very convenient useful & beneficial to your petitioner and his numerous family; and the possessors of those slaves as cannot complain if they should be compelled to deliver themself to the Commonwealth or to its assignee, since they purchased a title which they knew at the time to be defective; they bought the slaves absolutely and forever, of a person who, they well knew could have no more than a life estate in them; and in so doing they aided to commit a fraud on the person who would be entitled to them after the termination of her life estate; they were held under the will of Slowman WYNNE, and it was only necessary to read that will, to know that the right of Elizabeth WYNNE could not possibly endure longer than her life; and if having the means of easily ascertaining the title of the seller, they neglected to do so, they wilfully submitted to imposition, or determined to assist in the fraud and cannot now complain if they should be compelled to yield the property to its real & true owners.

Your petitioner thinks it just & candid to state, that there are other and more distant maternal relations of the said Robert WYNNE besides himself, but your petitioner stands in the first degree of propinquity or nearness of material relationship to the said Robert, and the other & more distant relatives are in so many different degrees of relationship and resident in so many different & remote parts of different states and so numerous, that they never could unite to make an application to the legislature of this Commonwealth for the relinquishment of its title, & if it were possible that they could unite, yet from their number, the title could be of no possible advantage to them, the proposition, of the value of the slaves, which each would be entitled to, would by no means compensate for the trouble of making the application.

Your petitioner therefor confiding in the liberality and justice of the legislature of Virginia, and believing that it would disdain to withhold from the needy and nearest relative of the said Robert WYNNE, property of such trivial value, humbly prays that your honorable house, would be pleased to pass a law, to transfer to & vest in your petitioner, the right of the Commonwealth to the said Slave Hannah and her descendants and your petitioner as in duty bound Shall ever pray & c.

William WYNNE by his son & agent x
Robert WYNNE

Post-It Warning!!!

Several recent genealogical journals and newsletters have published a warning regarding the use of those little notepads with adhesive on the back. Available in various sizes under several different brand names, supposedly, they have been found to contain chemicals which can cause deterioration of paper products and photographs. The source of this information was not disclosed. Though convenient, apply caution when using them on your research documents and books.

The Preponderance Ultimatum

By Madlyn Jamison

"I want a divorce!"
He/She then said …
Dead ancestors fill dressers,
and lie under our beds,
They're stuffed into closets
And they've messed up your head!
Forms, pedigrees, photos,
Relics and books …
Cover the floors …
And fill all house nooks!
You've got to stop going
On researching jags …
I'm up to my ears with
Your boxes and bags!
I've lived with your "habit"
Quite long enough …
While you keep on collecting
More genealogical stuff!

Then there are nights
When you don't come to bed …
'Cause you'd rather be "doing"
Your ancestry instead!
Since this hobby of yours
Has come on the scene…
I have not a spouse
Nor a house that is clean!
Listen well, my darling …
Take heed my dearest …
I'm leaving for good …
Oh? You'll need a computer,
A copier and a printer?
To work up MY pedigree
before I depart?
Sheesh! My love …
You are really all heart!

Who's in the News – 1864 (Part 2)

Abstracted by Laura J. Alley

The North Carolina Standard – Weekly

Wednesday, June 1

- Married, on the 22d instant, at the residence of the bride's mother, by A. R. PERRY, Esq., Mr. John MORGAN to Miss Haste? HALL, all of Wake County.

Wednesday, June 8

- Married, in this City, on the 1st of June, by Elder W. N. BRAGG, Mr. P. A. ROBERSON, of the 23d regiment, Granville, to Miss Ellen SMITH, of this City.

Wednesday, June 15

- Died, in this City on the 7th inst., at 8 ½ o'clock a.m., Mrs. Martha S. WEDDON, in the 35th year of her age, consort of Mr. T. J. WEDDON, and daughter of the late Calvin JORDAN. She was perfectly resigned to death, and is now no doubt with the redeemed in heaven. She leaves an affectionate husband and three small children.

Wednesday, June 22

- We deeply regret to state that Gen. Leonidas POLK was struck by a cannon ball on the 14th instant, and instantly killed. He was on the field of battle some twenty miles west of Atlanta in Company with Gen. JOHNSON and other officers. Gen. POLK was a native of this City. His death will be generally and deeply deplored. He was a gentlemen and a Christian, and a true soldier of the South.

Wednesday, June 29

- Died, in this City, yesterday, June 22d, Mrs. Martha M. ADAMS, wife of Lynn ADAMS, Esq.

Wednesday, July 6

- Died, in this County, on Sunday the 19th instant, Mrs. Priscilla WOODS, aged eighty years old; during thirty-five of which she had been a consistent and faithful member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. – Hillsboro' Recorder

- Died, near Joyners Depot, Wilson County, on the 17th June, Mr. David SHARP, aged thirty-one years, leaving a wife and two young children.

- Died, near New Hill, Wake County, on the 24th June, at the residence of Mrs. OLIVE, Martha Johnson, infant daughter of Mary E. and C. J. BRIGHT, aged one year, four months and twenty-seven days. She leaves a brother and sister, and mother, and a kind father who is a prisoner in the hands of the enemy, to mourn her death.

- Died, suddenly in this County, on the 23d inst. Hugh BECKERDITE, aged 55 years and 2 days. The deceased had just returned from Salem, and put up his horse as usual when his son noticed that he reclined on the turf in his yard, and going up found him in a dying state … Salem Press.

- To record the death of a friend and neighbor, with whom we have been associated for many years by the strongest ties of friendship, is a task that makes the hand and heart tremble with sorrowful emotion. Every word we pen reminds us we are paying the last tribute of respect to the memory of one whose hand we shall never grasp again, whose voice we shall never hear, and whom we shall meet no more on earth. Such are the feelings while we record the death of our friend, John H. JOHNSON, who fell in a charge of defence of his country on the 20th day of May, 1864, near Petersburg. He volunteered in Company D, Capt. LASSITER's company, 35th regiment, NC Troops, in June, 1861, and participated in all fights from Newbern to the fights around Richmond, where he received his death wound … He leaves a father and mother, four sisters and three brothers to mourn his death … He had professed religion in October, 1855, and united himself with the Baptist Church at Olive's Chapel, Wake County. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity. He was born the 4th day of March, 1840, and died the 20th day of May, 1864.

- While penning this notice we heard of the death of his brother Thomas, who fell on the battle-field near Petersburg, on Friday the 17th of June … He possessed all the qualities of his brother John as a solder, Christian, and Mason. He leaves a devoted wife and child to mourn his death. He joined the same company at the same time with his brother, and when he fell on the 20th, he caught him in his arms and remained with him until driven away by the enemy. His poor brother lay on the battlefield two days. Thomas then took his body, laid it in the grave, where it remained for a week, when his father took it up and removed it to the family graveyard, and there buried it … S.H.H.

Wednesday, July 13

- Amos B. ROYSTER, of Co. H., 47th Regiment N.C.T., departed this life on the 16th of June last at Winder Hospital, at Richmond, from the effects of a wound received, on the 3d in the fights near that place. In May, 1863, he resigned a position that he had honorably filled for several years in the Post Office of this City, and volunteered his services to his country… He was 21 years of age and the second son of Mr. M. B. ROYSTER, Esq., of this city.

Wednesday, August 10

- A boston firm has gone into the manufacture of artificial arms and legs - the company announcing a guarantee of eight per cent dividends to stockholders, and a special permit from Secretary STANTON to supply the confederates! This concern doubtless goes in for "the vigorous prolongation of the war!"

Wednesday, August 24

- In Memoriam – Killed, in the engagement near White's Tavern, Virginia, the 16th instant, Captain George Pettigrew BRYAN, of the 2d regiment NC Calvary, aged 22 years, 10 months, and 7 days … Captain BRYAN was the son of Hon. John H. BRYAN of this City. He was a distinguished graduate of the University of North Carolina in the year 1860, and from that period to his entrance in the army, (early in 1861?,) he held the position of Tutor at the University … He was a member of the Episcopal Church and showed his devotion to God by his pure exemplary life …

Wednesday, August 31

- Died, of typhoid fever, in the City of Raleigh, on Saturday, the 20th day of August, 1864, Mrs. Lucy WILLIAMS, wife of W. T. WILLIAMS, and daughter of Sterling SPIKES, dec'd, in the 27th year of her age…

The Dilemma of Nicknames

By Elizabeth White May

Today when one's signature is required on a document, the instruction is usually for the use of the legal name and often request first, middle (or middle initial), maiden (if female), and last. Not so in the times of our ancestors! They were as likely (and sometimes it appears, more likely) to sign legal documents with their nickname as they were their given name[1]. Thus you will find one document signed Maggie Roberts and others signed Margaret Roberts.

Nicknames appear to have been prevalent from time immortal. In Encyclopedia Britannica they are referred to as "bynames" (Geoffrey, The Fair; Henry, Beauclerc; Henry, Curtmantle). Before the advent of surnames, other identifying information was frequently added to distinguish one person from another with the same name (Michael, the redhead; Michael, the carpenter). Some of these distinctions evolved into surnames. Others did not and might be thought of as nicknames.

A nickname is defined here as a name given to a person in addition to the one given to him/her by the parents at birth. The nickname may originate in the family (by parents, a sibling, grandparents), from friends, or from the person him/herself. Nicknames:

(1) may be shortened versions of some part of the first or middle name (Delia for Cordelia, Lish for Elisha, Bev for Beverly) and frequently have "ly" or "lie" added (Rennie, Billy);

(2) a name which, for some unknown reason, through time has become associated with a particular given name (Peggy for Margaret, Hank for Henry);

(3) a shortened version of the surname (more frequent with males – "Pic/Pick" for Pickard; "Mac/Mack" for McLeod or any other "Mc" or "Mac" surname);

(4) may be descriptive of a physical characteristic ("Shorty," "Slim," "Red," "Blondie,");

(5) may be the person's initials (again, appears to be more frequent for males – D. J. for Duncan James, R. V. for Roscoe Vann, or Jehue for J. Hugh); or

(6) may relate to nothing to which one can attach significance ("Boot", "Buck").

Pet names should not be confused with nicknames. Although the terms are sometimes used interchangeably, pet names are usually affectionate terms used within the family unit for a given individual ("Honey," "Sugar/Sug," "Sister/Sis," "Bro/Brother," "Baby/Babe, etc.). These types of names are not usually found in legal documents of any period, so rarely come to the attention of the researcher except through family tradition.

The nicknames which present the most problems for us as researchers are those listed as numbers (1), (2), and (6) above – shortened derivatives of first or middle names, an unrelated name associated with a particular given name, and those which seem to have no relationship to the first, middle or surname. The problems can be further complicated by the same nickname being used for more than one given name (Nell for Eleanor, Helen, Cornelia or Ellen; Bert for Albert, Bertram, Bertrand, Egbert, Gilbert, Herbert, Norbert, or Osbert), or by a family bestowing a given name to one child and its nickname to another (one daughter named Elizabeth; a second daughter named, Eliza or one son named Daniel and a second named, Dan). Often, if a child died young, the next child born of the same sex was given the full name of the deceased child or a modified version of the name.

[1] In this paper, "given name" is used for the first and/or middle names bestowed upon a person at birth or through some other legal means.

All too frequently, an old family Bible, may be the only source to conclusively identify the birth name of an individual. Example: A marriage license states Evelyn E. Minnis married William A. Blackley. Her tombstone inscription reads, “Evelyn E. Blackley.” Her obituary refers to her as “Evelyn Lou Blackley” and states she was known in the community as “Miss Lou”. Several granddaughters and great-granddaughters have been named for her using “Louise” or “Lou” in their names. Was the “E” on the marriage license and on the tombstone a mistake? NO. In her Bible (which only a select few family members knew still existed until a recent death), she recorded her name as “Evelyn Eugenia”. From where did the “Lou” come? Our own Betty Dees solved this mystery. Try saying Evelyn Eugenia – fast. As your tongue trips over “lyn Eu” you will hear “Lou”.

What started as a nickname many times later became a given name. My parental grandmother referred to herself as “Kate” and that is the name on her tombstone. In the Bible just mentioned, her mother recorded her name as “Katie”. Kate (or Katie) named her only daughter, Katie Bet. The “Bet” is for the deceased sister of her husband, who was Elizabeth, but called “Betty” or “Bet”.

Other examples encountered include:

- In 1834 Thomas Martin gave two slaves to his sister, Mary, wife of Willis Williams and her sons, Martin and Thomas. In 1845 Willoughby Williams was made guardian of Martin and Thomas. There are numerous other documents for Willoughby, but only this one for Willis. Was Willoughby Williams the second husband of Mary Martin Williams? A number of researchers answered yes. Two years ago, after analyzing all of the available documents and putting all of the information in chronological order, other researchers concluded that no, Mary Martin Williams was not married twice – “Willis” and “Willoughby” were one and the same person.

$ Through family tradition, one of my father’s aunts had been recorded as Nancy, named for her mother. All legal documents, census schedules and her tombstone inscription bear the name, “Nannie.” Was her name Nancy? Likely, but there is no conclusive evidence.

Sometimes only what appears to be a nickname is found on all documents. Other times records in the right time period and in the correct geographic location, will produce two or more names which raise the question, “Could this be the same person?” In those cases, it is helpful to know all the possible nicknames for a specific given name.

Confronted with the “nickname dilemma”, the author (about four years ago) began compiling a card file of every nickname and its associated given name discovered in genealogical literature, her research, materials collected at genealogical workshops and seminars, and findings shared by fellow researchers. Names in the collection are not geographically specific but are English/American in usage. The file is alphabetized in four cross-reference categories: (1) female nicknames with associated names; (2) male nicknames with associated names; (3) female names with associated nicknames, and (4) male names with associated nicknames.

With the various spellings, the file currently contains approximately 700 female nicknames and 500 male nicknames. From these numbers, it appears that female nicknames were more prevalent and diverse than male nicknames. Analysis of the file produced an interesting question: Which is the nickname, Ann or Nancy? Each has been found giving the other as a nickname. Maybe that is why there are so many Nancy Anns!

A number of researchers have used the file and found it helpful, and each user has added to the lists. We hope it will assist still others. The lists which follow are the nicknames with the associated name(s). The nicknames are divided into obvious female and male groupings and are in alphabetical order, except that “sound-a-like” spellings are grouped together along with the “ly” and “lie” suffixes.
