WAKE COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC (WCGS) was organized in April 1982 to promote genealogical study and research, to serve as a medium of exchange of genealogical or historical information, to encourage the preservation of genealogical or historical records, to provide cultural, educational, and social opportunities involving genealogy. In 1983 WCGS was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the laws of the State of North Carolina.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership is open to anyone with an interest in the purposes of WCGS as stated above. The membership year is from January 1 through December 31. Annual dues for new members are $20.00 for individuals and institutions and $25.00 for families (two people, related by blood or marriage residing at the same address). A former charter member can rejoin for a fee of $15.00 - a one-time option.

MEETINGS: WCGS meets on the fourth Tuesday of each month except in June, July, August, and December. Meetings begin at 7:00 PM and visitors are welcomed. The current meeting place is Westover United Methodist Church, 300 Powell Dr, Raleigh, NC.

CORRESPONDENCE: All correspondence should be sent to WCGS, PO Box 17713, Raleigh, NC 27619-7713. For a fee of $5.00, you may request up to one hour of research by the "Please Help Me" Committee.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS: Please notify WCGS of a change of address as soon as it is known so that your journals and other WCGS communications will reach you in a timely manner. There is a $3.00 charge for remailing returned journals. Postage costs for returns have more than doubled since October 1995 and continue to increase in small increments.

WAKE TREASURES is the journal of WCGS and is free to members. One copy is sent for each Family Membership. Bi-annual issues are identified as Winter/Spring, and Summer/Fall.

EDITORIAL POLICY: Emphasis will be on unpublished, primary source documents with historical or genealogical significance for Wake County, NC. Primary source documents from counties from which large numbers of inhabitants migrated into Wake County may be used provided there is no Genealogical or Historical Society serving that county. Articles emphasizing methodology, instructions and "lessons learned" will be welcomed. Manuscripts about Wake County residents, past and present will be accepted. Wake County family cemetery surveys and Bible records will be used as space allows. Articles will reflect a balance regarding time periods and needs of both the novice and the experienced genealogists.

Manuscripts submitted will be judged on style, clarity, consistency, documentation and general appeal to the membership. References used to compile the manuscript must be included. (Send SASE to Editor for guidelines.)

Book reviews will be published for authors or publishers who donate the book to the WCGS library and for publications recommended by members which are pertinent to Wake County or of general genealogical interest. Books are then donated by the society to the Olivia Raney Library.

Neither WCGS nor the Journal Committee shall be held responsible for content, punctuation and/or spelling errors in manuscripts. Such errors are the sole responsibility of the contributor. Documented corrections of content errors, submitted to the Journal Editor, will appear in a later issue.

QUERIES: Members may submit an unlimited number of queries at no additional charge. Queries are accepted from non-members at $2.00 per query. For an extra $5.00, non-members can request a copy of the journal in which their paid queries were included. It is helpful when queries are submitted on a Wake Treasures Query Form. Queries are subject to editing and will be printed as space permits. Requests for Query Forms (send a SASE) and query submissions should be addressed to Query Editor at the address printed above. You may also xerox the query form in the insert placed in the center of the journal when more than one copy is needed.

PERMISSION TO QUOTE: Permission to reproduce or quote from an article published in any issue of Wake Treasures must be obtained in writing from the author(s). Write to the specific author in care of the WCGS address above.

BACK ISSUES: Past issues of Wake Treasures are sold only in volume sets. Volumes I through V are now available. See insert for price and other details.

Message From the Editor

Slave Schedule Abstract Forms: OOPS! In the rush to assemble the "already late" summer issue, the wrong copies of the forms for the 1850 and 1860 Schedule 2 – Slave Inhabitants were inserted for the printer – copies without all of the column headings! Please write the following in the blank spaces of the appropriate form (before copying!):

1850	1860
2. No. of Slaves	2. No. of Slaves
3. Age	3. Age
4. Sex	4. Sex
5. Colour	5. Colour
6. Fugitives from the State	6. Fugitives from the State
7. No. Manumitted	7. No. Manumitted
	9. No. Slave Houses

As has been announced, this is the last issue of Wake Treasures for which I will be serving as Editor. My time in this position – and as co-editor – has provided many learnings and associations with people I might not have had an opportunity to know. Publishing a journal is a complicated, "many steps" process – and success is dependent upon not just one person, but many. My sincere thanks go to all those who have participated in that process the last three years.

One of the difficulties we experience in publishing Wake Treasures is not knowing if we are meeting the needs of the membership. The lack of "feedback" is frustrating. It is difficult to interpret silence. PLEASE assist your new journal committee by commenting – pro or con – about the content. As a starter, here are three questions which need to be addressed:

(1) Would you like the abstracts of the tax lists continued?
(2) Would you like the abstracts of the bastardy bonds continued?
(3) Do you like educational articles?

As the folks from The Skeleton Closet say, "May all your ancestors have tombstones!"

Oh, For a Single Word

Leach. Northwold Parish Register (Norfolk) 16 May 1826. From Archd. Paley's Charges.

It has been estimated to me by very high legal authority, that in ye investigation of pedigrees from parish register, great uncertainty has been found to rise from ye want of ye family surname of ye mother appearing in ye entry. It is well known that one half of controversies which occur upon the subject of descents result from ye confusion of whole blood and half blood & ye difficulty of tracing back genealogies in ye maternal line. Doubts of this kind can seldom be ascertained by ye register in which nothing too often is found but ye Xtian names of ye mother; they are rather increased by consulting the register, whenever it appears, as it frequently may happen, that an ancestor has married two wives of ye same Xtian name & has had children by both. It is evident that this ambiguity may be completely obviated by so easy and expedient as ye addition of ye maiden name of ye mother to ye rest of ye record: it is a single question to ask & a single word to write down. I understand that this alternation has been adopted by the Diocese of Norwich, perhaps in some others, with great approbation; & if it appears likely to promote in any degree ye purposes of future peace & justice, I am persuaded ye little trouble it may occasion will not be judged, or declined, tho' generation are yet unborn which will reap ye efforts of it.

War of 1812 – Wake County Volunteers

By Lynne White Belvin and Norma Lynne Ellington

North Carolina Research, Genealogy, and Local History, Helen F. M. Leary and Maurice R. Stirewalt, Eds., The North Carolina Genealogical Society, Raleigh, NC, 1980.

Muster Rolls of the Soldiers of the War of 1812-Detached from the Militia of North Carolina in 1812-1814 Published in Pursuance of the Resolutions of the General Assembly of January 21, 1851, under the Direction of the Adjutant General. Pages 63 & 64. This book although an official state document is frequently in error both as to fact and spelling.

On 18 June 1812, for the second time, the United States Congress declared war on Great Britain. The United States requisitioned a specific number of militiamen from each state who were to be volunteers serving under officers of the United States Regular Army. Once the volunteers had been organized, they would be known as the "detached militia." They were to wait at home until a need for their services arose, at which time they were to be mustered in the presence of an officer of the United States Army or a federal inspector appointed for that purpose. The officer or inspector was to certify the muster role for pay purposes. Only when the rolls were properly certified were the expenses of arming, clothing, subsisting, and paying the detached militia on active duty to be borne by the United States.

In 1812, there were 50,000 men in the six divisions of the North Carolina Militia. The US government requisitioned 7,000 volunteers in the summer of 1813 and another 7,000 in 1815. In addition, fifteen companies of troops were raised in 1814 and were called out after the Treaty of Ghent and ordered to rendezvous at Wadesboro in 1815. When news of Andrew JACKSON's victory in New Orleans came, the militiamen at Wadesboro returned home without marching.

The North Carolina State Archives does not have service records for any of the militiamen who served in the War of 1812. These will be found at the National Archives in Washington, DC along with the pay records for those volunteers whose records were properly certified by an officer or federal inspector. It does, however, have pay records for the volunteers of the 1813 requisition and for the fifteen companies assembled at Wadesboro in 1815.

Why are there two locations for the pay records for North Carolina volunteers? The 1813 volunteers were called out by Governor Hawkins to defend the NC coast and were mustered in the presence of state militia officers only, therefore the muster rolls could not be certified according to the federal regulation. As a result, these men (and civilians who furnished supplies, labor and materials) were paid by the State of North Carolina. Whether or not "assembling" qualified as "active service" was a bone of contention. North Carolina ended up paying the fifteen militia companies who assembled at Wadesboro in 1815 and returned home without actually marching.

In his chapter on "Military Records" in North Carolina Research, George Stevenson identifies four major groups of records relating to the War of 1812 held by the NC Archives.

1. Muster Rolls: Six volumes exist. Five contain the rolls of the detached militia mustered in the summer of 1813 and the sixth has the Wadesboro muster rolls of 1815.

2. War of 1812 Account Books: These contain the lists of the claims which the Auditors verified as being valid. As with the muster rolls, these are only the claims arising from the 1813 defense of the coast and the 1815 Wadesboro rendezvous. To a great extent the lists in the eleven Account Books duplicate information available in the muster rolls, but also include claims made by civilians validated by the Auditors.

3. Pay Vouchers: There are nearly 5,000 surviving War of 1812 pay vouchers. They, also, are for pay of soldiers of the detached militia called up for the costal defense in 1813 and those ordered to rendezvous at Wadesboro in 1815. These volunteers came from the following counties: Anson, Beaufort, Bertie, Brunswick, Camden, Carteret, Chatham, Chowan, Craven, Cumberland, Currituck, Duplin, Franklin, Gates, Granville, Halifax, Hertford, Hyde, Lenoir, Montgomery, New Hanover, Northampton, Orange, Perquimans, Pitt, Rockingham, Tyrell, Wake, Warren, Washington, and Wayne. Pay vouchers for coastal defense volunteers from Bladen, Columbus, Jones, Onslow, or Pasquotank counties have not survived. The vouchers are arranged alphabetically by the surname of the payee. Photocopies of a voucher can be obtained from the NC Archives.

4. Pay and Receipt Rolls: There are seventy-seven surviving rolls. They were drawn up by militia company and are records of actual payment of the vouchers. The rolls also served as a receipt. The soldier or his representative signed the roll when the payment was received. Researchers can obtain typed, certified copies of an entry in these records from the NC Archives.

Maurice Toler has prepared, for the NC Archives, an excellent index for the entire state of the existing pay vouchers. From his statewide index, we have extracted those from Wake county.

Following the Wake county voucher index, is the muster roll of the First Company of the Artillery which was detached from the Wake County Regiment as published in Muster Rolls of the Soldiers of the War of 1812 – Detached from the Militia of North Carolina in 1812-1814. The NC Archives cautions researchers that although this book is an official state document it is frequently in error, both as to fact and spelling.

Muster Roll of the Artillery

Detached from the Militia of North Carolina, in pursuance of a Requisition of the President of the United States, by virtue of an Act passed in Congress, 10th April, 1812.

Note: Finding your ancestor's name in this list is not proof for membership in the Society of 1812 or the United States Daughters of 1812. You must submit the name found in this list to the NC State Archives Staff and they will research the records and for a charge of $8.00 will send you a certificate of military service which lists his rank, name of his unit , state or county militia unit and from where detached. Another source would be to check his name with the 1812 Vouchers.

- HOMICIDE. On Thursday night last George FOWLER came to his death by wounds inflicted upon him by Christopher C. SCOTT, at a house in the eastern part of this City. FOWLER, it appears, was stabbed in three places – between his shoulders, in the back, and in the right side. He got to his house, some three hundred yards from the place where he received the wounds, and died in his yard. Mr. SCOTT was arrested that night and committed to jail by the Intendant and on the next day a Jury of Inquest was called and found a verdict substantially as above. On Saturday a Court of Magistrates, consisting of Messrs. W. Dallas HAYWOOD, William THOMPSON and C. B. ROOT, was called and the accused was brought up for an examination into the testimony of the case. After a full hearing of the testimony, as well as of his Counsel, Messrs. G. W. HAYWOOD and Henry W. MILLER, the Court refused to bail the accused, and committed him to prison to stand his trial at the next Superior Court.

[Note: There are suggestions of change in the method of recording documents in this time period as evidenced by the following: Names of justices are omitted from the body of some records while in other bonds the phrase "held and firmly bound unto the State of North Carolina" is used where names of Justices were formerly inserted. Abbreviated words with superscript endings show signs of change. February, often abbreviated as Feby rather than Feb^{y}, is now seen as Febr, along with Septr., Decr and other words. In some instances, terminology and phrases used seems more modern and direct, while some records seem less specific. The majority of documents are still handwritten. Pre-printed formats also reflect reduced and more general language.]

Why Are North Carolinians Called Tar Heels?

By William S. Powell, Professor of History, University of North Carolina.

From a folder for tar heel bookmark, printed by Eurocraft, Inc., PO Box 3335, Fredericksburg, VA. 22402 (no copyright symbol)

Who knows for sure how North Carolinians got to be called Tar Heels? Nobody does, but there are several stories about it that have been told for a long time.

Some people say that when Cornwallis' British troops forded the Tar River in May 1781, on their way to Yorktown, they got stuck in tar that had been dumped in the river to keep it from being captured. During the Civil War, another relates, when troops from North Carolina, fighting in Virginia, stuck to their posts during a hard battle, President Jefferson Davis wanted to buy all the tar in North Carolina to make Virginians stick fast, too.

Somebody else said that General Robert E. Lee commended North Carolina troops by saying, "God Bless the Tar Heel boys." So much tar, pitch, and turpentine were produced in the pine woods of the state that outsiders started calling the people Tar Heels because so many got tar stuck on their feet when they were at work.

"J" or "I" and "U" or "V" – "The Alphabet Turn'd Posture-Master" aka Hotch-Potch Alphabet

Source: Found on the tag attached to a tote bag printed and distributed by Stevens Linen Assoc., Inc., Dudley, MA 01571

This fanciful design is taken from The Comical Hotch-Potch or the Alphabet turn'd Posture-Master, published in London in 1782 by Carrington Bowles. The original hand-tinted print has cavorting, jovial characters who provide a fresh, instructive view of the alphabet with posture and rhyme. In accordance with the custom of the period, the print has only twenty-four letters. The letters "J" and "U" are omitted, as most people preferred to use the "I" and the "V."
