WAKE COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC (WCGS) was organized in April 1982 to promote genealogical study and research, to serve as a medium of exchange of genealogical or historical information, to encourage the preservation of genealogical or historical records, to provide cultural, educational, and social opportunities involving genealogy. In 1983 WCGS was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the laws of the State of North Carolina.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership is open to anyone with an interest in the purposes of WCGS as stated above. The membership year is from January 1 through December 31. Annual dues for new members are $20.00 for individuals and institutions and $25.00 for families (two people, related by blood or marriage residing at the same address). A former charter member can rejoin for a fee of $15.00 - a one-time option.

MEETINGS: WCGS meets on the fourth Tuesday of each month except in June, July, August, and December. Meetings begin at 7:00 PM and visitors are welcomed. The current meeting place is the Olivia Raney Library, 4016 Cary Drive, Raleigh, NC. 27610. Phone: 250-1198.

CORRESPONDENCE: All correspondence should be sent to WCGS, PO Box 17713, Raleigh, NC 27619-7713. For a fee of $5.00, you may request up to one hour of research by the "Please Help Me" Committee.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS: Please notify WCGS of a change of address as soon as it is known so that your journals and other WCGS communications will reach you in a timely manner. There is a $3.00 charge for remailing returned journals. Postage costs for returns have more than doubled since October 1995 and continue to increase in small increments.

WAKE TREASURES is the journal of WCGS and is free to members. One copy is sent for each Family Membership. Bi-annual issues are identified as Winter/Spring, and Summer/Fall.

EDITORIAL POLICY: Emphasis will be on unpublished, primary source documents with historical or genealogical significance for Wake County, NC. Primary source documents from counties from which large numbers of inhabitants migrated into Wake County may be used provided there is no Genealogical or Historical Society serving that county. Articles emphasizing methodology, instructions and "lessons learned" will be welcomed. Manuscripts about Wake County residents, past and present will be accepted. Wake County family cemetery surveys and Bible records will be used as space allows. Articles will reflect a balance regarding time periods and needs of both the novice and the experienced genealogists.

Manuscripts submitted will be judged on style, clarity, consistency, documentation and general appeal to the membership. References used to compile the manuscript must be included. (Send SASE to Editor for guidelines.)

Book reviews will be published for authors or publishers who donate the book to the WCGS library and for publications recommended by members which are pertinent to Wake County or of general genealogical interest. Books are then donated by the society to the Olivia Raney Library.

Neither WCGS nor the Journal Committee shall be held responsible for content, punctuation and/or spelling errors in manuscripts. Such errors are the sole responsibility of the contributor. Documented corrections of content errors, submitted to the Journal Editor, will appear in a later issue.

QUERIES: Members may submit an unlimited number of queries at no additional charge. Queries are accepted from non-members at $2.00 per query. For an extra $5.00, non-members can request a copy of the journal in which their paid queries were included. It is helpful when queries are submitted on a Wake Treasures Query Form. Queries are subject to editing and will be printed as space permits. Requests for Query Forms (send a SASE) and query submissions should be addressed to Query Editor at the address printed above. You may also xerox the query form in the insert placed in the center of the journal when more than one copy is needed.

PERMISSION TO QUOTE: Permission to reproduce or quote from an article published in any issue of Wake Treasures must be obtained in writing from the author(s). Write to the specific author in care of the WCGS address above.

A WORD FROM OUR PAST PRESIDENT

By Julie Moffatt Peterman

1 April 2000 – Greetings...Today I mailed in our Census 2000 form. Unfortunately my husband and I received the short form. I would have loved to receive the long form. One of the most valuable and pleasurable genealogical resources for me is gathering and pouring over the census information that was created by my ancestors especially since 1850.

Last week at our regular WCGS meetings we had a genetic counselor speak to us on the relationship of the study and application of genetics to families. She looks at diseases of the current generation and their two previous generations. Each year there are additional classes offered on this subject at national genealogical conferences. If we obtain this data as we gather genealogical information about ourselves and our ancestors, we will be doing a tremendous favor to our descendants.

On behalf of all WCGS members, I want to give a very special thank you to Madlyn Jamison who has served as Editor of Wake Treasures since our Summer/Fall 1998 issue. This is a tremendous undertaking for every issue. Madlyn gave countless hours of time and energy for our benefit in receiving this highly regarded publication. Please thank her and all her committee members.

Last week we installed four new WCGS officers: Director, Elizabeth Hamilton; Recording Secretary, Ann Hilke; First Vice President, Monica Hopkins; and President, Ron Springsteen. Thank you to the outgoing officers: Scott Lee (First Vice President), Ruth Bolz (Recording Secretary), and Director (Ron Springsteen). I have really enjoyed serving as your president for the past two years – I have learned much from all of you.

A WORD FROM OUR PRESIDENT

By Ron Springsteen

Although the Wake County Genealogical Society has a rich history, it is still relatively young with much potential for growth and new focus. What do you want your society to be? What will you make of it? You are the society. Your participation will strengthen the society, and will be a benefit to you. Many hands helping in small ways make for a rewarding experience and a healthier society. We have already had some new volunteers and have opportunities for many more.

Among those who have made sustained and generous contributions, one person in particular comes to mind in this time of transition. Madlyn Jamison is retiring as editor of Wake Treasures. We can't begin to thank her enough for her diligence, loyalty, and commitment to excellence. She has worked over the years with many others who have made substantial contributions to this journal, and some of them are carrying on. Madlyn's role at the helm has been essential in defining a journal that we can all be proud of.

I am grateful for the good people with whom I have worked on the board. They have given time, energy, and thought in directing the welfare of our society. Ruth Bolz and Scott Lee are leaving the board, but will continue to be of great help to us. Ruth learned about the mysteries of the computer in her role as Recording Secretary. Scott, in addition to serving as editor of our quarterly newsletter Updates, has been instrumental in establishing our society's web page and in assuming responsibility for the Wake County USGenWeb site. I'm still not sure how he avoided the traditional progression from First Vice-President to President. My energetic predecessor, Julie Peterman, has brought valuable new people, views, and activities to the society. She has begun to establish a network of communication and cooperation with neighboring societies, and I look forward to her active guidance on the board as Past President.

Most of all, I look forward to working with many of you and hope that together we can strengthen what we value in our society and take a fresh look at what we want it to be.

A WORD FROM THE JOURNAL COMMITTEE

The Journal Committee needs YOUR help!!! We are currently without an editor and are managing by committee. Everyone is pulling together to publish the Journal. We are trying new ideas, and we welcome your feedback. If you are interested in helping, please let us know. If you live out of town, we can mail you copies of deeds to abstract.

We have opportunities for anyone to become a submitter of materials. You will find Bible records, business records, hospital burial records, and pedigree charts. We can offer you projects that can be done in your home. Photocopies of microfilmed deeds can be mailed to you. Electronic files of 1890 Raleigh revenue records can be emailed to you. The final products of both can be electronically returned to us, if this is more convenient, or by return mail.

Some of the former writers for Wake Treasures are no longer able to contribute, so the challenge now goes out to the membership. The Journal Committee needs more members to come forward to help. We owe a great debt of gratitude to Madlyn and her Committee and those before them for their efforts with the first nine volumes. Now is the time to answer the call of your Society. Contact us by email at wcs@pobox.com or by postal mail at WCGS – Journal, P.O. Box 17713, Raleigh, NC 27619.

HARRIS, Haywood vs. Nancy HARRIS

Divorce granted during January term of court 1882. PI complained that he and Def were married at Fish Dam (in Wake Co.) on 3 Jun 1861 and they were residents of this state at the time of the complaint. Def had separated herself from the PI and was living in adultery. At divers places within Wake Co. and at various times between 1 Aug 1879 and the current date, Def had committed adultery with one Samuel ALLEN and others unknown to PI. The couple had no children.

HARRIS, Henry vs. Francis HARRIS

PI was adjudged to be entitled to the dissolution of the marriage during August court term 1886. There is no complaint filed with the case, but the decree states that the Def committed adultery with one Allen DAVIS and with one Jno. DASS.

HARRIS, Matilda vs. Thomas HARRIS

There is no judgment filed with this case. The complaint states that Matilda HARRIS and Thomas HARRIS of the City of Raleigh were married on 3 December 1831. She stated that she had been born and raised in Wake Co. and that she went to Raleigh where she became acquainted with the PI. He had been very attentive to her and urgent in his solicitations of marriage. For the first 6 months he treated the PI with great kindness and attention but after some time he frequently threatened to shoot her and finally began sleeping in another bedroom of the house. In November of 1832 PI became very sick, and Def would come to the house for a few minutes, then leave and stay away until 2 or 3 in the morning. He would not call a doctor for her, claiming that she was not sick but rather lying and deceitful. About the time of the PI's illness "it was generally reported" that Def had deserted his wife and was committing adultery with one Alice PRICE and Liza REDDING, by the latter of whom he had a child. In 1833 Def abandoned PI, and she was turned out of the home by his mother and family. In 1834 Def stated that he was going to Alabama, and Alice PRICE left the city soon after he did. They were seen taking the ferry together at the Cape Fear River near Fayetteville. This complaint was made on 5 April 1834.

HARRIS, Julia vs. David HARRIS

The divorce was granted during the Special February Term 1875. PI stated that she and Def were married in Raleigh in July 1866; both were residents of the state. At divers places within the city of Raleigh and at various times between 1 July 1870 and the bringing of this action, Def committed adultery with one Elizabeth ANDERSON and with others unknown to PI.

HARRIS, Lucy vs. Isaiah J. HARRIS

The divorce was granted during the October term of court 1898, and the PI was granted custody of her children. PI stated that she and Def were married in 1889, and Def abandoned PI in 1894 without cause and had lived apart from her since that time. The children were not mentioned in the complaint.

HARRIS, Lula vs. Henry HARRIS

PI stated that she was married to Def in Oct 1870; both were inhabitants of NC. They lived together until 16 Feb 1871, when Def abandoned PI without just cause, and about 5 Sep 1871 PI had a child. Def did not provide any support for this child or the mother, although he was earning $40.00 per month. PI's suit was for a separation and for alimony. However, the failure of the Def to provide for the child was not clearcut, as W. H. HARRIS testified that Def rented a house for PI but she refused to go to it, going to her mother's instead. Def left the state, and during his absence he sent money to his mother to purchase clothing for the child, but PI refused. A note in the file runs as follows: "Miss Lizzie I will not except of your present as my child is not in need of close I have work for him up to this time and I am able to take care of him with out of enny of your helper Yours Lula". During fall court term 1874, Def was ordered to pay PI's attorney $100.00 so that she could pursue the case. He was then ordered to pay PI $30.00 per month for support and maintenance until the final determination of the action. A final statement declared that "The allemony, fines, cost and penalties of this suit settled by FOWLE [Daniel] and LEWIS Atter.s for Parties 17 Oct 1874."

HARRISON, Maria vs. Rufus HARRISON

The marriage was dissolved by the court, probably during the fall term of court 1870, but the papers do not give the date. PI stated in her complaint made 29 March 1870 that she married Def some time in the month of June 1866. "About 30 days ago" she learned that her husband had eloped with and was living in adultery with one Charlotte WILLIS. She intended after an interval of 6 months to file for a divorce.

HARRISON, John vs. Della HARRISON

The divorce was granted during September term of court 1910. PI alleged that he and Def were married in Franklin Co. [NC] about Christmas of the year 1895. Def left PI during the year 1906 and had not lived with him since that date. During the years from 1906 to 1909, Def committed adultery with one Jim CLOSS. Def's summons stated that Della HARRISON, colored, was staying in Franklin Co. near Macon Place; another summons reads "said to be at 'Beacon Place'" in Warren Co.

BOX C.R.099.604.22

HAWKINS, James vs. Jane HAWKINS

The divorce was granted during February court term 1896. PI complained that he and Def were married in June 1874 in the town of Kittrells, then in Granville Co. NC, by Rev. Braxton HUNT. Def committed adultery during the years 1889, 1890, and 1891 with one Gaston WYCHE in the town of Henderson NC and had a child by him. During the subsequent years 1892 through 1895 Def committed adultery in the town of Henderson with one Stephen REVIS and also had a child by this man.

HAYES, Lewis vs. Sally HAYES

The divorce was granted during the October court term 1902. PI stated in his complaint that he and Def were married in 1896 and lived together for about 12 months when Def abandoned PI and left the state. Def had committed adultery "with divers parties to the plaintiff unknown" prior to her leaving the city. PI deposed in the state of Pennsylvania on 30 Sep 1902 that he had been a resident of the state of NC "all my life until a year ago. About 22 years."

HAYWOOD, Sallie vs. Eli HAYWOOD

The suit was abated during the January special term 1877, and PI was ordered to pay costs of $12.00. The complaint states that PI and Def were married about March 1868 in the City of Raleigh. They lived together until about 3½ years prior to the bringing of this action, at which time Def whipped and choked PI without cause, after which she left him. She had not seen him since that time until a few days prior to these charges when he aimed a pistol at her, abusing her and scaring her; she feared for her life. She also charged Def with "keeping one Ginnie GRIFFIS and being in adultery with her" and that this was the real cause of his actions toward her.

HAYWOOD, Willis vs. Polly HAYWOOD

The divorce was granted during the February court term 1881. PI alleged that he and Def were residents of Wake Co. and were married on 3 July 1874. They lived together until 16 December 1877, when Def abandoned PI and since that time had committed adultery with John PATTERSON, Charles DUNSTON, Maxwell GORMAN, and Albert MAGNIN.

HEDGEPEETH, William vs. Dolly HEDGEPEETH

The jury found during the special January term of court 1877 that the PI's complaint against the Def was not justified and that therefore the divorce should not be granted. PI stated that he and Def were married in 1859 or 1860 and lived together as man and wife, and "Defendant continued to do and perform all the duties of a good and true wife until some time in the year 1870 when her temper became uncertain and her manner towards plaintiff changed from affection to indifference and finally to absolute hate." In 1871 Def "received permission from plaintiff to visit her father's house and spend the night; this as plaintiff by accident discovered was a mean sham and pretense, for after dark on said night plaintiff met his said wife near the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Companies depot in lewd company, and when spoken to by this plaintiff for her improper conduct replied that she was her own woman and would have nothing to do with plaintiff", calling him names as well. He tried to induce her to return to him and "lead the life of a good wife, but utterly failed to recall her to her duty." He believed that she was "lost to every sence (sic) of virtue and shame, and was habitually prostituting her body for money ... and was living in adultery with one Logan GREEN." PI moved away "to a distant state" in 1871 and did not know what his wife had been doing since that time. Rufus MORGAN, Alfred BURNS, and Willie TABON were summoned to give evidence in the case.

HEMAN, Minnie vs. Charles HEMAN

The suit was abated during a special term of Superior Court 1877 and each party was to pay his own costs. PI stated that she and Def, residents of NC, were married on 10 Dec 1870 in the City of Raleigh. Since said marriage Def had treated her in a cruel and inhuman manner, beating and bruising her, and since about January 1872 had been frequently drunk and had maliciously turned the PI out of doors and had refused and now (at the time of the complaint) refused to provide a proper support. Def was in possession of all the property belonging to both PI and Def, it being the product of their joint labor, and worth nearly $5,000.00. Def had been disposing of his property and so concealing and encumbering it that the PI "will be disappointed in her alimony." Albert MAGNIN was appointed receiver for the storehouse and personal property of PI, and Def and was required to enter into a bond of $500.00. On 18 December 1873 Def was ordered to pay to PI the sum of $50.00 monthly as alimony pendente lite. An additional affidavit was submitted at the time; in it the PI declared that since the beginning of this action she rented from one R. HARRISON a storehouse in which to do business and bought items on credit to sell. Def, learning of her intentions, threatened Mr. HARRISON, causing him to violate the contract, and the Def himself rented the store to prevent PI from supporting herself. He also prevented her from retrieving her clothing and belongings from their home, one which was built "in great part by manual labor of plaintiff."

Def denied mistreating or abusing PI in any way except for one time, some 18 months prior to this action, "when he entered a room and found PI sitting between 2 men, one of whom had his shirt out, and upon his remonstrating with her, she abused and cursed him and ... under this aggravating circumstance he slapped her one time only, and this is the only time he ever struck her and this was very slight." He also denied that he ever got drunk; it was true that it was his custom to have a drink but it was rare that he was drunk or unfit for business or oblivious of the proprieties of life. He stated that he always provided well for her and that, in fact, it was she who drank to excess and would say and do things unbecoming a wife, when he would kindly admonish her and put her to bed. He further stated that far from putting her out of the home, it was she who left against his wishes. On 22 Dec 1873 Def was ordered to pay to PI the sum of $600.00; however, if he paid her the $50.00 per month per agreement, then this order was to be void.

HENDERSON, Elnora vs. James HENDERSON

The marriage was dissolved during the February term of court 1904, and the PI was permitted to resume her maiden name of Elnora GREEN. She alleged that she and Def were married in Wake Co. in February 1882. Some time during the year 1885, Def abandoned PI without cause and had lived apart from her since that date. PI had been a resident of NC all her life. Def was not found in Wake Co. and was believed to have left the state.

HENLEY/HENLY, John vs. Talitha HENLEY

There is only the petition for divorce in this file; apparently the case never went to court. John HENLY stated in his complaint that he and Def were married about 1842 and lived together about 2 years, when she became dissatisfied with the marriage. "Under the in-fluence of her relations [she] abandoned him and went to live with her father [but] before she left ... he had reason to believe that the said Talitha had been guilty of adultery", and after her departure she committed adultery with one Solomon HARRISON, they having been seen going into the woods together. PI believed that Def did not intend to return to the marriage.

HESTER, Minnie vs. Joseph HESTER

The marriage was annulled during the February court term 1896, and PI was awarded custody of her children. She alleged in her complaint that she and Def were married in Wake Co. in 1888 and they had 2 children together. They lived together until sometime during the year 1891, when Def abandoned PI without cause.

HICKS, Ammie vs. J. R. HICKS

There is neither complaint nor judgment filed with this case. The folder contains an interpretation by the judge of the laws regarding a woman's dower right when she has left her husband prior to his death, with this right hinging upon whether the husband was abusive toward the wife, driving her from the home, whether she left voluntarily, or whether her behavior was the cause of his asking her to leave. The defendant, apparently an heir of J. R. HICKS, also requested special instructions to the jury on the point that charges of infidelity were made against the PI a number of years before the separation and were not disputed by her.

HICKS, Nancy G. vs. L. P. HICKS

During October term of court 1890, "Upon motion of Plaintiff's Counsel, Judgment of non-suit is rendered against the Plaintiff and for costs of this suit, to be taxed by the Clerk." In her complaint, PI alleged that she and Def were married on 23 January 1873 in Wake Co. and lived together until 21 January 1890. Several years prior to 1890 Def had been addicted to excessive drink and had promiscuously associated with Negro women and lived in adultery with them. He had failed to provide properly for his wife, had squandered his earnings and most of his property on these [Negro] women, and had constantly cursed and abused his wife. He had repeatedly endangered her life by pointing a loaded pistol at her head and threatening to kill her. To protect her life she had been compelled to shut herself up in a room. Her condition was rendered intolerable by these actions. Def abandoned PI and left her unprovided for. His partners in adultery were Jinne GALLOUSHILL, Sallie CROSS, Henrietta BROWN, Pisey FULLER, and Lucy DOLLAR, among others.

HICKS, Wesley vs. Nancy HICKS

The divorce was granted during February term of court 1895, and PI was awarded custody of his child, Sidney [Sidey] Ann HICKS. PI stated that he and Def were married in Nash Co. NC on 22 December 1887 and [stayed together] until August 1893; two [children] were born during the time they lived together. Def had left PI and had lived in adultery with one Tom GRIFFIN by whom she had a child, and she also committed adultery with John RICHARDSON. PI requested custody of his female child who, he believed, was under "very unwholesome influence."

HIGH, Elizabeth C. vs. Alexander M. HIGH

The Def having ignored two summonses to appear in court to answer the charges, this was taken as an admission of the truth of the charges, and a jury was impaneled to decide upon the issues. The jury found for the PI and the divorce was granted during fall term of court 1843. PI's petition stated that she and Alexander M. HIGH were married in 1812 in Wake Co. and had eight children together, seven of whom were still living at the time of this petition. Def had left his wife without cause and was living in adultery with one Winny MULLENS of the City of Raleigh. Several years prior to this Def had left his wife and lived in open adultery with one Clara THOMAS until her death in April 1842, at which time he took up with Ms. MULLENS. PI had lived in Wake Co. all of her life.

HILL, Caroline vs. Henry HILL

The marriage was dissolved during the spring court term 1843. PI, in her petition, stated that she and Def were married some time during the month of December 1835 and they lived peaceably and happily together for a short time. They had three children, two of whom were still living. For the past two years Def had make PI's life intolerable, frequently cruelly beating, bruising, and whipping her. About that time he deserted her and lived in a house with "a certain lewd woman named Elenor SORRELL in open and notorious adultery." Six months previously he "entirely separated from your petitioner, and went in company with the above notorious strumpet to an adjoining state." Shortly before that he went to the PI's residence and closed the house, since which time she had had no shelter and had been entirely dependent on the charity of her neighbors.

HILL, Walter vs. Annie HILL

The divorce was granted during January term of court 1885. PI alleged that he and Def were married in Wake Co. in the year 1878 and lived together until about January 1881. In that month at the house of the PI in the City of Raleigh, and at divers other times and places Def committed adultery with one Henry HAYS, and the Def left the home of PI upon being charged with the adultery. PI also accused Def of adultery with one Thomas WILLIAMS, one John MORGAN, and other persons unknown to PI.

HINTON, Candace vs. Albert HINTON

The divorce was granted during April term of court 1904. In her complaint, PI stated that she and Def were married in 1896, and the Def abandoned her in January 1900. During the time PI and her husband lived together and after the abandonment by her husband, he lived in adultery with one Fanny LEE. PI had been a resident of Wake Co. all her life.

HINTON, India vs. Elbert HINTON

PI was "divorced from the bonds of Matrimony" during October term of Superior Court 1889. PI stated that she and Def were married in Wake Co. on 14 May 1885 and lived together about two years. Def left PI about December 1887 and lived in adultery with one Nancy FORT. The Def was not found in Wake Co.

HINTON, Charles vs. Sylvia HINTON

The marriage was dissolved during April term 1904. PI stated that he and Def were married in 189_, and Def abandoned PI in the spring of 1898. Before and since the abandonment Def had committed adultery with various and sundry persons unknown to the PI. PI was a lifelong resident of Wake Co.

HINTON, Emily vs. George S. HINTON

The bonds of matrimony were dissolved during September term of court 1910. In her complaint, PI alleged that she and Def were married in Wake Co. sometime during the year 1890. Def left the PI in 1893 or 1894 and had not lived with her since. During the year 1905, Def “committed fornication and adultery in Charlotte, NC with one Amandy or Mattie WALKER”, and at the time of this complaint he was living with this woman at 411 Liberty Street in Charlotte. George HINTON was summoned from Mecklenburg Co. [NC] where he worked at the Southern R.R. Office.

HINTON, Monroe vs. Sarah J. HINTON

HINTON, Nannie vs. Tony HINTON

The divorce was granted during April term 1909 and the Def was ordered to pay PI $2.50 for her support each month. The PI alleged that she and Def were married on 7 May 1900. Since the marriage Def had treated her in a cruel and inhuman manner, repeatedly committing acts of cruelty and violence. In Oct 1903, while PI and Def were working at the insane asylum for colored residents at Goldsboro, “one night just after PI had been paid, Def demanded her money, and upon her refusing to give it to him, he attempted to take the money by force and in doing so choked and beat her and tore almost all her clothing from her. She believed that unless assistance had arrived she would have been killed or seriously injured. On this occasion she ran away very scantily clad, climbed several fences and sought safety in the hospital, where she arrived in an hysterical condition.” On another occasion about a year later the Def attacked her again, blacking one of her eyes and loosening several teeth. On several occasions he locked her out of the house. During the spring of 1908, although PI and Def lived in the same house with her sister and her sister’s husband, Def forbade her entering her sister’s room and from speaking to her or having any contact with her whatsoever. “Defendant’s entire course of conduct towards the plaintiff with rare exceptions has been for a long period uniformly brutal and abusive, he being constantly in the habit of applying abusive epithets to her, of threatening her with violence and of striking and attempting to strike her and of turning her out of doors, and it has become entirely unsafe for her to live with him.” The following people were summoned to give evidence in the case: Mary PUGH, Sara Jane ALLEN, Carry LEWIS, Charlie RICKS, and J. Turner ANDERSON.

Since the separation Def had committed adultery with one Frank FREEMAN. Def was not found in Wake Co. and was believed to be living in Florida.

HOBGOOD, J. W. vs. Mary A. HOBGOOD

The divorce was granted during April court term 1888. The PI’s complaint alleges that he and Def were married in February 1883. Def resided with PI about 4 months, when she abandoned him and had refused to live with him since that time. “She goes with colored women of lewd character, though a white woman herself.” During the month of May or June 1883, she committed adultery with one Charlie HILL. He believed that “She receives the visits of numbers of men and that she goes about with such visitors under suspicious circumstances – That among the men who have visited night and day and taken her riding with him is one John H. CHAPPELL...” Sion BLAKE was named as another of these visitors. Charlie HILL, William ROGERS, and William PERRY were summoned to give evidence in the case.

HOCKADAY, Narcissa vs. Sam HOCKADAY, alias Henry HOCKADAY

During fall term of court 1812, the judgment of the court was that the marriage was void from the beginning and therefore annulled. In her complaint the PI stated that she and Def were married, but no date was given. At the time of the marriage Def was already married to another woman then living and undivorced, unknown to the PI. In the January term of court 1909, Def was convicted of bigamy. The following men, "all colored", were summoned to give evidence: Charlie McCULLERS, Samuel McCULLERS, and Thomas BANKS. Both PI and def had been residents of NC for more than 2 years prior to this action.

H. FLEMING, Attorney at Law, perhaps the PI's attorney but not so stated, submitted a note to the court: "My wife's condition is such that I am compelled to be at home. In November of the same year the PI returned to Wake Co and the couple settled near the City of Raleigh, and living together until 1838. The couple separated in that year because Def acknowledged her infidelity to him and boasted that she had plenty of money and that she could make as much money as she wanted. She stated she could do better without him. The Def "removed herself and all her clothing to a notorious and public brothel in the City of Raleigh ... and then and there became a common and public Prostitute ... with sundry and divers persons." Furthermore, during the time they lived together, the Def was so profligate in her spending that the PI feared being driven to bankruptcy. Alsey BEEVERS and Martha NICHOLSON gave depositions in the case.

During the latter part of 1888 and the first months of 1889, Def, as the PI believes, committed adultery with Robt. PENNY "and divers persons to the PI unknown, and has led the life of a common Harlot", giving birth to a child out of wedlock about 4 April 1893. Flora HOLLOWAY alias F. D. SEXTON was summoned to answer the complaint. In the Review of the Issues, the section referring to Robt. L. PERRY was crossed out.

At divers places within the City of Raleigh between the 1st day of July 1875 and the commencement of the divorce action, Def committed acts of adultery with Amanda WORTHEN (?). Def left the PI and lived with one Jennie HAYWOOD in the fall of 1870, committing adultery with her and also with other women both before and after the abandonment. Def had given no support to PI after the separation and while living with PI and had treated her very cruelly and had been an habitual drunkard for more than 5 years.

HORNER, Susan vs. Sydney HORNER

There is no final judgment in this file. PI's complaint states that she and Def were married in Granville Co. NC in 1880. About the month of June 1881, Def left PI and lived in adultery with one Susan JONES and had since engaged in adulterous behavior with divers other women. A form in the file states that "It appearing to the Court that the parties have become reunited, hereupon it is adjudged that the action be dismissed." Sidney HORNER was sought in Forsyth Co. according to a summons dated 24 July 1884.

HORTON, Ernest C. vs. Cora Lee HORTON

NC on September 28, 1879 and lived together until February 1908. In July 1907, Def committed adultery with C. The Def was not found in the state.

HORTON, Fabius vs. Lula HORTON

According to the Judgment, dated October 1896, the jury found that "the plaintiff Fabius HORTON is the Father of the child with which the defendant Lula HORTON was big at the time of their marriage, and that the plaintiff knew that the defendant was pregnant at the time he married her. It is therefore adjudged that the plaintiff is not entitled to a divorce, and that the defendant go without day, and that the plaintiff be taxed with the costs of this suit." PI alleged that he was married to Def on 10 January 1895 in Neuse River Township, Wake Co. At the time of the marriage Def was pregnant, and PI did not know about her pregnancy and was not the father of the child, according to the complaint. Guyon PERRY, W. R. ROBERTSON, and Helen HORTON were summoned to give evidence in the case.

HORTON, Joseph vs. India HORTON alias Lula HORTON

The marriage was dissolved during March term 1898. PI complained that he and Def were married on 16 November 1890 by A. R. HODGE, a Justice of Peace in Wake Co. Thereafter Def left PI and lived for more than 60 days with one Cal FREEMAN. Afterwards, during the year 1895, she lived with one Joe HIGHT for about 90 days. More than 2 years prior to this action, Def abandoned PI and "set up and established in the City of Raleigh, an open and avowed house of prostitution, to which lewd and lascivious men were invited and with whom she practiced adulterous relations habitually." Since the separation, Def had become a known and public prostitute in the City of Raleigh. Linda HALL, Pleasant HALL, Malinda HALL, Pleasant SMITH, and H. Woods HORTON were summoned to give evidence.

HORTON, Richard vs. Mary HORTON

The divorce was granted during March Special Term 1884. PI in his complaint stated that he and Def were married in Wake Co. about 1875 and lived together until about March 1879 when he left her and had not lived with her since. The cause of his departure was her adultery with one James CROCKER "or some person unknown" by whom she had a child. PI and Def were both natives of NC.

HORTON, Tobias vs. Lula HORTON

The divorce decree was issued during October term 1907. PI, in his complaint, stated that he and Def were married in Wake Co. on 10 January 1895. Def at the time of her marriage was pregnant, and the PI was ignorant of the pregnancy and was not the father of this child. Said child was born on 10 June 1905 [sic; undoubtedly 1895], about 5 months after PI and Def were married. Immediately after the birth of this child, PI compelled Def to leave his home, and they had not lived together since. The Def then had several more children out of wedlock and had committed adultery with divers men unknown to PI. PI and Def had been separated for about 12 years and had no children born to their union. Def was not found in the Co. and was believed to have left the state.

HORTON, William vs. Sarah Hopkins HORTON

The Def having failed to appear for the hearing, all issues were found in favor of the PI, and the divorce was granted during February term 1910. The complaint states that PI and Def were married on the fourth Sunday in December 1906 in Wake Co. Within the 3 weeks prior to this complaint, Def had disappeared and PI did not know where she was. On the fourth Sunday in March 1907, "in the woods near the home of the plaintiff ... said defendant committed adultery with one Isiah HIGH [called William HIGH on one document in the file], the time of day being about two o'clock in the afternoon." At various places and times since then, PI had reason to believe that Def had been guilty of similar acts of adultery with men unknown to PI. The Def was not found in Wake Co.

HOUSE, Willie M. vs. Minnie HOUSE

This file contains several dozen pages of legal notes and actions, and the case eventually went to the State Supreme Court, which, during the August term 1902, decided that the wife had no recourse against her husband and therefore denied her plea that the divorce action be dismissed. A Judgment for Divorce was handed down by the Superior Court in the October term of that year. The complaint states that PI and Def were married in Wake Co. in March 1897 and lived together until July 1901, when Def left the PI. During the month of March 1901 Def committed adultery with one Mack FOWLER and with one Thomas SEARS and with other men whose names were unknown to PI. The Def answered that she had heard that during and since the time she and her husband lived together, he had committed adultery with various persons, two of whom were Rosa WALL and Della BEASLEY, and since the separation PI had visited his wife at her house and had sexual relations with her. She asked that the divorce action be dismissed.

HOWARD, James N. vs. Mary Viola HOWARD

PI failed to appear for the hearing and a Judgment of Non-suit was issued. PI had stated in his complaint that he and Def were married in Wake Co. on 27 August 1879 and lived together from that date until about August 1882, when Def left the PI and committed adultery with one C. M. HARRIS.

HOWELL, W. H. vs. Civil A. HOWELL (HARVEL or HORVEL in complaint)

The marriage was dissolved during April term of court 1898. Pl complained that he and Def were married about 25 March 1878. Def had been unfaithful to him and in consequence of "the lewd and vicious life the said defendant has been living the plaintiff left her in the City of Raleigh on the 11th day of April 1896" and had not lived with her since but had been living in Middle Creek Township (Wake Co.) about 15 miles from Raleigh. "The defendant did on or about the last of April 1896 bed and cohabit with one unknown to plaintiff and was caught in said position by William JOHNSON ... Since plaintiff left defendant...the defendant has led a lewd and vicious life – having continually allowed all male persons who so desired to visit her at her house at such times as they choose. She the said defendant, as plaintiff is informed, making no secret of the fact that she was keeping a house of ill fame. As a result of [this lifestyle] she is now pregnant by some person unknown to plaintiff."

HUNTER, Sarah vs. Jacob HUNTER

There is no disposition in this case, only a request dated 12 July 1847 that the clerk of the Court of Equity for Wake Co. issue a writ of sequestration to the Sheriff commanding him to take property of the Def in the amount of $2,500 and hold same as security subject to the further order of the court. Pl in her petition stated that she and Def were married in March 1840 and lived together affectionately until November, when Def left, saying he was going West. Shortly after this much to her surprise, she learned that he had returned to the neighborhood but refused to see her. He would give no explanation for this behavior and resisted the entreaties of friends and relatives. Def made insinuations against the character of the Pl which caused her to resort to the law. Since leaving Pl, Def had lived in adultery with one Aggie DAVIS and had had a child by her. Pl stated that Def was a man of fortune, being worth in money or security for the same six or eight thousand dollars as well as owning 9 slaves valued at four thousand dollars. He was also entitled to receive from John LIGON, executor of Pl's father's estate, more than six hundred dollars as well as a slave valued at seven hundred fifty dollars. Def had sold his land and intended to leave the state.

SELECTIVE SERVICE REGISTRATION FOR NORTH CAROLINA

By Karen Brown Waller

[Ed. Note: In addition to the Selective Service Registration cards listed above, the author references: King, Spencer Bidwell, Jr., Selective Service in NC in WWII (Chapel Hill: University of N.C. Press, 1949).]

The Selective Service Registration Index for all of North Carolina is located at the NC State Archives. The records are dated from 1940 to 1955. There are many wonderful genealogical tidbits in these records. There are 176 rolls of microfilm in alphabetical order, and they are broken down into two classes. Registrants are on rolls F.10.1N through F.10.170.N, and corrections are on rolls F.10.174N and F.10.175.N. Non-registrants were on rolls F.171. N through F.10.173N, and non-registrant corrections are located on roll F.10.176N.

The records are easy to find since they are in alphabetical order. The registration cards varied in the information they contained depending on the year the person registered. The cards gives the registrant's full name, place of residence (address, city, county, state), mailing address, telephone, age, place of birth (county/town and state), and date of birth. It also included the name and address of a person who will always know their address. Initially, the relationship between the registrant and the address person were requested. The card also gave the employer's name and address, place of employment, and address. The registrant then signed the card. Many of the earlier cards appear to be hand written by the registrant. The later cards were typed.

Also included with the registration was a physical description. The description included race, height, weight, eyes, hair, and complexion. It also asked for any physical descriptions that would aid in identification such as a scar. It was then signed by the registrar and dated. The Local Board and number were then stamped on the card.

Non-registrant cards were used for men already entered in military service. These cards included the name, area of service, rank, serial number, address prior to enlisting, race, and signature.

There were six major selective service registrations. They started in 1940, and the last one was a continuous registration starting in 1943 stating that every male must register as he reached his 18th birthday.

The first major registration came about with the passing of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940. The 16th of October 1940 was the first day of registration for all males 21 to 36 years old. It ran from 7 am to 9 pm. By the 20th of October, North Carolina had enrolled 448,283 men. The accuracy of the selective service registration makes it an even greater genealogical find. The 1940 NC draft registration was thought to be more accurate than the 1940 census because based on estimation from the 1940 census the registration was higher than originally estimated.

The second draft registration was held on the 1st of July 1941, and 24,165 men registered in NC. This Registration was for men who turned 21 between midnight July 1, 1941 and October 16, 1940. On the 20th of December 1941, the Selective Service Act age span was amended to include all men between 18 and 65. The 3rd registration was held on the 16th of February 1942 and was for men 20-21 and 36-44. In NC 205,529 men registered.

The 4th registration was for men ages 45-65, and 262,125 men registered. These men were registered for morale purposes, and the government never intended to draft them for service. These registration cards do not appear with the other cards on microfilm in the NC State Archives. Since these records are federal records, the Archives is not sure where these cards are located.

The 5th registration was for men 18-20 years of age—men born on or after the 1st of January 1922 and on or before the 30th of June 1924. On the 30th of June 1942 in NC, 89,172 men registered. The 6th registration started a continuous registration on the 1st of January 1943 that every male was to register as he reached his 18th birthday. In Wake County 36,719 men had registered by the 1st of July 1945.

Here is a transcription of several Wake County residents who registered for the draft at different times because of their ages. I have kept the information in the order in which they appear on the cards. This is an example of a card filled out during the first registration 16 October 1940. The card was handwritten and signed by the registrant. This card had an additional piece of information written at the top, "honorably discharged".

The Selective Service Registration cards can be a great source of information for men born since 1896. It can also help fill in for the lack of birth records before 1913. I really enjoyed using the records, especially since I was able to find a physical description of many of my relatives who died before I was born. The Selective Service Registration cards are just another one of the many resources that we have to help fill in and enhance our family histories.

NC State Archives AB138.1

William HILL was born 1753 and died 1857. He was a blacksmith in Raleigh, Wake County, NC. Not only was William HILL a Raleigh businessman, he was the secretary of state from 1811 to 1857. His papers include letters from his agent about land in Kentucky and Tennessee. There is also a description of a journey to Alabama that HILL made 1831-1833. The papers show HILL's memorandum book which record purchases of lumber by Raleigh residents and a gaming debt of Richard CASWELL. There are guardian papers from 1810 to 1820 on Nathaniel DUNN and Claudia J. GILMOUR which include estate papers of William DUNN and William GILMOUR.

The following list was abstracted from HILL's account book and is in the private manuscript collections of the North Carolina State Archives[†]. The names are of the customers for which he performed services. The dates given are dates when an entry was made into the account book.

GENEALOGY POEM

By Dorothy Barlett from Finished Tales Newsletter, March 1993

It always used to seem to me
That when you're dead, you're dead.
But, now a genealogist
Has rattled up my head.

"Who married who and where'd they live,
And dates of birth we need...
Who fathered who and who came next?
Much interest in the seed.

Much interest in the wars they fought,
And some in lands they held,
My family tree is being shook;
I haven't much to tell.

A gravestone shows us precious small
About the life once led,
With only dates of birth and death
Engraved above the head.

There was an Indian name way back,
A governor as well.
Who were those farmers, engineers?
What stores could they tell?

A great, great grandpa once mistook
A prowler for a bear.
Old Uncle Archie cheated Sam
And lived without a care.

Are these important things to note?
Do they sum up a life?
What memories can we pass along
To balance out the Strife?

I wish I'd saved the Christmas cards
From cousins far and wide:
The kind that have the three-page notes
And photographs inside.

I think I'll write a word or two
As my ancestral task,
Describing mom and dad and gramps
For those who care to ask.

I'll chronicle my family now
As far as I can see
And satisfy a native bent,
My curiosity.

WHO OWNS THAT ABANDONED GRAVEYARD?

From The Guilford Genealogist, Winter 1994.

If you want to know who owns an abandoned country graveyard, you can find out. First, get the best fix on the location that you can. You will need the approximate distance and direction of the graveyard from the closest road, name of that road, and then the name of and the distance from the nearest intersecting road. If you can determine the township, it will speed your search. Armed with the information you have, visit the tax office in the courthouse where you should be able to determine what township the graveyard is in, and then from the township maps, who owns the property.

DOROTHEA DIX (STATE HOSPITAL IN RALEIGH) CEMETERY RECORDS – PATIENTS BURIED 1911-1928

Transcribed by Sue Zolkowski

The Dorothea Dix State Hospital was named after Dorothea Lynde DIX, a noted advocate for reform of asylums, jails, and hospitals. In 1848 she appealed the North Carolina State Legislature to establish a state hospital for the insane, to serve especially the indigent insane who were often treated in poor, often inhumane or dangerous conditions. The General Assembly of 1848-49 provided for the establishment of a facility for 250 patients within 3 miles of Raleigh. The Insane Asylum of North Carolina as it was named admitted its first 40 patients in March 1856.

Admission was made upon the direct commitment by a court or transfer from jail, by an inquest initiated by a citizen, or by payment for the patient by friends, relative, or government of another state. Indigent patients were given priority over the wealthy, and more curable cases over those of long standing chronic mental illness.

In 1875 the General Assembly appropriated funds to build an additional asylum near Morganton, which opened in 1833 as the Western Insane Asylum. The General Assembly also funded “a branch asylum for the colored insane,” to be located in Wilmington, with funds not being expended until 1877, when they were used to begin building the Eastern North Carolina Insane Asylum at Goldsboro, which opened for African-American patients in 1880.

In 1897 the asylum in Raleigh was renamed the Central Hospital for the Insane. In 1917, the three separate mental hospital boards were merged into one. The State Hospital at Raleigh was renamed the Dorothea DIX Hospital in 1959.

Taken from an excellent summary found in the Dorothy Dix Hospital Agency History (MARS ID#96) Guide to Research Materials in the North Carolina State Archives: State Agency Records, 342-344.

IN PRAISE OF WILL BOOKS

By Jocelyn Powell

We are always delighted to find that an ancestor has left a will, and our delight is compounded when he or she names all the children, describes the land, gives the names of the married daughters, and sometimes even includes grandchildren. Then there are those wonderful aunts and uncles who name their brothers and sisters, nieces and nephews. Their wills are almost always recorded in will books kept by the county and are accessible in county offices, state archives, or on microfilm. There are indispensable indexes to these wills; for example, North Carolina has North Carolina Wills: A Testator Index, 1665-1900, compiled by Thornton W. Mitchell.

Beyond the recording of wills that have gone to probate, however, many other events were recorded in these books: guardian accounts, the partitioning of land among the heirs, inventories (including who owes what to whom), estate sales (with their purchasers), documentation of the contesting of a will, etc. Some of these documents are included in estate files, but many are not. Wake County wills and estates have been abstracted by Frances Holloway Wynne in Abstracts of Record of Wills, Inventories, Settlement of Estates 1771-1802 Wake County and Abstracts ... 1802-1812, but the contents of the will books beyond that date do not appear in print.

Each individual will book has an index with the names of the deceased, the widow, children whose guardian accounts are recorded, and those whose land is being divided to the heirs. As an example of what is available, this article will present the full index to Wake County Will Book 11, 1812 to 1815, along with an indication of which of these entries records a will or a plat map of a division of land.

The underlined pages are those on which a will is recorded; the asterisk (*) indicates the page where a plat may be found. The following names appear in this index:

It can be seen that of the approximately 185 individuals listed in this index, only 21 of these entries are recorded wills. Several of the listings are related to wills recorded in previous books and at least one or two connect with wills that were recorded in later books. Abstracts are not available for the years subsequent to 1812 in Wake Co., and estate records are not filmed and are incomplete in any event; therefore, it is important to read through the index in each will book which covers the time period surrounding the approximate death date of an individual to discover whether there are other documents pertaining to the family.

Will Book 11, pp. 161-162.

"The annexed plat represents the Lands of Henry STEVENS Deceased which we in obedience to an Order from the Worshipful Court of Wake, Mary [sic] Term 1813 Have proceeded after being duly qualified to divide among his six Legatees as follows, to Wit... " (There is no will recorded for Henry STEVENS.)

Division #1 began at a gum tree on Little Creek, extended to a branch (unnamed), back to the creek and to the beginning, 27 acres. This lot was allotted to Sanders STEVENS, and he was to receive $10.00.

Division #2 adjoining #1 and containing 27 acres was allotted to Pennina STEVENS, who was also to receive $10.00.

Division #3 adjoined the widow's dower lot on the north, starting at Little Creek, contained 28 acres and was allotted to Gilly TOMLINSON, who was to receive $2.50.

The fourth division began at a marker on the Juniper Branch, was drawn west and southward, then rejoined the branch and back to the beginning, containing 34 acres. This tract was allotted to Nancy STEVENS, who was to pay $3.50.

Division #5 began on Little Creek, extended east and south, then westward to the creek and back to the beginning, containing 28 acres. It was allotted to Berry STEVENS, who was to pay $8.50.

The sixth division began on Little Creek, following the creek southward and then going east, north, then west back to the creek. It was allotted to James STEVENS, "and the said James REAVIS (?) ___ the sum of $3.50."

The report was submitted during August Term of Court 1813 and was signed by B. H. SANDERS, Martin NALL, James WILLIAMS, Zachariah STEVENS, David WILLIAMS, and Francis YOUNG.

WAKE COUNTY CEMETERY SURVEY LISTING BY TOWNSHIP (PARTS 9 AND 10 – FINAL)

By Irene O. Kittinger, Coordinator

This series started in 1996 with Volume VI, Number 1. We hope that it has been helpful and will continue to be until the findings are in final format, to include the burials. In the meantime, if unable to visit the cemetery, please feel free to contact the coordinator. Every effort will be made to determine if the information being sought has been found. And local WCGS members especially, with the survey winding down, it would be of such help if you will ask around, check past issues and if one is not listed, please contact me. Also, a number have yet to be surveyed and the burials recorded.

Each issue since the beginning has covered two townships. Wake County has twenty. The last four, in this issue, are the inner part of the county – Raleigh and the three that surround on her north/northwestern perimeters. Not as many family graveyards are found, many long since destroyed. Churches organized prior to 1913 that have cemeteries are a good source for some who died before then, when death certificates became law in NC. Raleigh, being the capital city, recorded deaths a few years sooner than required. Municipal cemeteries, most started much later, have offices with burial listings.

Again, a fact: not many inscribed stones from early 19th century remain. Raleigh City Cemetery has the most, but has fewer burials of outlying county residents. And in recent years many stones have been vandalized. The only cemetery thus far found in the county with an earlier date than in Raleigh was destroyed by one vote of the governing body (oh, but yes, stones and some dirt were moved to a new location – all legal and proper!).

With the survey's purpose to find and record the cemeteries has come a concern about our current situation here and an awareness that the left hand does NOT know what the right hand does to work the system. State laws were made for certain cemeteries to be moved – for vital water and the absolutely vital roads. Not all, but some developers, residential/industrial, take advantage of the original intent and plan ahead to rid a cemetery; for example, under guise that the entranceway must go there! And when not really worked at to find descendants for an abandoned and neglected one (and there is a reason why it is), things go better! Our laws are not strong enough for the many angles, from the vandal who is never caught on through to the planning commissions and governing bodies. A few families, however, have been strong and said, "Don't you dare move our ancestors from their final resting place" – they prevailed. When will it ever come to follow the example of those who do build around these sacred places and/or adopt them?

Hopefully, one of the standing preservation organizations in the county somehow will take the cemeteries under wing. Perhaps a separate group is needed to deal with the many issues, especially when a developer wants to prevail in his plan to move one (which is destroying it). On the positive side are those who seek counsel on restoring or who want to care for one; other aspects of a cemetery group's impact come to mind. These burial grounds are landmarks of our county – yea, to our very history and to one's own family heritage. Many are finding their heritage for the first time these days! Let us not fail our past or our future! (1218 Scott Pl., Cary NC 27511-4721. Tel: 919/467-6989).

WAKE COUNTY DEED BOOK R

The Journal Committee has started a new endeavor, the abstraction of Wake County Deed Book R. Deeds sometimes are the only record surviving to let us know our ancestor lived in a given place. They often give us wonderful genealogical gems such as a father making a gift deed of land to his son. When you see (X) in a name that means the signature was signed with a mark. Different volunteers have abstracted the following pages; the name of the abstractor will be above each section. If you would like to volunteer to help with this project, we can mail you photocopies of the deeds for you to abstract at home. If you are interested in this project, please contact us at www.wcgs.com.
