President's Report

Spring 1992

Dear Members,

As we prepare to celebrate our 10th birthday, we can all be proud of the growth and accomplishments that we have made in the past.

We have gone from a newsletter concept to a quarterly journal. Our journal has received high praise thanks to the dedication of the journal staff as well as the tireless efforts of our journal editor. We may fuss when she tells (nags?) us that our deadlines are nearing, but it is all worthwhile when we see the finished product.

Half of the board has been elected for the next two years. Some of our new members may not know that several years ago we decided in the interest of continuity that every other year one-half of the board would be re-elected. While each board member serves a two-year term, this process insures that we have a board with "seasoned" members as well as "new blood".

While the board has regretted the serious illness of Harriet Riggs, we are grateful that DeWayne McCarty, a member of Harriet's committee, has stepped in to help finished up the 1860 census. DeWayne has stayed in close touch with Harriet on the progress of this most important publication. We now anticipate a mid-summer publication date.

In the interest of saving the board members having to be at two WCGS meetings a month, we have moved the board meeting to 6:30 on the same night as the general monthly meeting. All board meetings are open to the membership, especially if you have an issue that you feel the board needs to address. We would remind you that any issue brought before the board should be in writing so that it will be a part of the permanent record of the society. Also if you know beforehand that you have an item of business or an announcement to make, please send it, in writing, to me at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting so that I can be sure that you will be included in the agenda.

For our members, both near and far, while we welcome your financial help in insuring the continued growth of the society, we would like to see you become more that a number on a mailing list. Our editor, Lynne White Belvin, our corresponding secretary, Betty Dees, or our membership vice-president, Glenda Terry, are most eager to tell you how you too can be a part of the future of the society. As they are fond of saying, let's all put our money where our mouth is!

Looking forward to an exciting year of growth.

(Signed)
Charlotte R. Carrére

Bastardy Bonds and Records

Compiled by Madlyn Jamison & Elizabeth Dees
Source: North Carolina State Archives CR 099.102.1

A recent query expressed perplexity at why Bastardy Bonds were not found for the "natural born" children when the records show the father petitioned the Legislature to have their names changed to his and thereby legitimatize them. Basically, we know he was a man of considerable property and he obviously wished them to share in it. He was careful to leave nothing to chance. An (illegitimate) child had no rights to his property in the absence of a will. This apparent prosperity explains the lack of Bastardy Bond if he was already providing for this family. The purpose of the system was to keep mother and child off the then Welfare Rolls – no purpose would be served in this matter by taking them before an already crowded Court. We see several cases here that went a bit further but nevertheless underline the financial aspect of this system. Polly DEFORD and Polly BUSBEE (or BARKER, see note with bond) were brought before the court and their families, or the father through the family, posted bond. Cases dismissed, father not name. They had assured the court that they would not become charges to the County. Poor Milly DAVIS of Raleigh decided to test the system and neither posted bond nor named the father. She lost; she went to jail and named the father shortly thereafter.

Earlier we foresaw that printed forms would replace the written documents. We erred, handwritten records proliferated, some cases requiring five before the final bond. Some of you may find the printing of these in the original language annoying and repetitive. Experience will tell you that complete records are a gold mine with many nuggets of information that would be missed by consulting tidy abstracts. For instance: did you note the use of "Be it remembered" in a document? (Volume 1, Number 4, pages 5 & 6) Quakers who neither swear nor take oaths usually open their documents with this phrase. Also "Know all men by these presents". Wake County was not a Quaker stronghold but someone in the court system had been influenced by them or was himself one.

As for the frequent misspelling of names, you should be alert to the fact that all versions of surnames should be searched. You may not have had a sinful ancestor, but you may have had one with an erring friend. Look carefully at the bondsmen, you may be able to place an ancestor in a time and place. These are "indeed" friends and a family relationship may be indicated – cousin, brother-in-law, etc.

The Parish system had been replaced by the County but note St. Margarets Parish was still used, with all its variant spellings. As to spelling and grammar, we have tried to maintain the flow of original words to show the idiomatic style and flavor of the period. Spelling is variable and capitals are used either "as the spirit moves" or possibly to show emphasis. Punctuation has improved, by 1811 we are noting complete sentences ended with a period and phrases set off by commas, however the colon still remains the favorite. The word "maintenance" appears on the printed form, probably a printers error since the handwritten forms do spell it correctly.

For a review of the laws pertaining to bastardy we refer you to the current issue of the North Carolina Genealogical Society Journal. They have reprinted Chapter 12, Bastardy, from Benjamin Swains' book; The North Carolina Justice: Containing a Summary Statement of the Statues and Common Law of this State, Together With the Decisions of the Supreme Court, and All the Most Approved Forms and Precedents, Relating to the Office and Duty of a Justice of the Pace and Other Public Officers, According to Modern Practice: The Whole Intended as a Complete Practical Application of the New Revised Statutes of North Carolina. Raleigh, printed by J. GALES and Son, Office of the Raleigh Register, 1839.

REMINDER: All names and spellings are copies verbatim from documents.

[Note: John H. BELVIN, son of John BELVIN & Mary, married Cherry SMITH; MB dated 1 May 1810. It appears John H. BELVIN's full name is John Herbert BELVIN – probably known as Herbert since his father's name was John. The may explain John H. and Herbert, but is John BELVIN who signed the bond John H. or is he the father Herbert (John H.)? We leave that mystery to you. Tiller SHIP married Nancy BELVIN, sister of the father John BELVIN, and is the uncle of John H. by marriage. BELVIN information from Lynne W. Belvin.]

In presents of J. BUSBEE. Signed: Polly (mark) BUSBEE, Jonathan BUSBEE, Ransom BUSBEE. Justices: not named.

[Note: Several compilers have read the name BUSBEE as BARBER. Families of both surnames lived in Wake County in that time period. In several instances it is possible to read BUSBEE as BARBER; in other instances it seems to be clearly BUSBEE. The writer of the document closed the top of his "a" in all other words. The "a" (BARBER) and "u" (BUSBEE) were all open at the top. Researchers should consider both BUSBEE and BARBER surnames when searching one of the other.]

Military and Pension Records of Black Soldiers Who Served in North Carolina During the War Between the States

Abstrated by Lynne White Belvin and Charlotte Reasons Carrére
Research by Rusty Koonce, Staff member at NC State Archives
Introduction by Charlotte R. Carrére

Would you be surprised to find that there were Negroes who served in the Confederate forces? Most of us have heard about slaves who ran away from the plantations to serve in the Union Army's black units. (Do note that they did not serve in white units!)

Sadly lacking from history textbooks that are used in teaching our children is the fact that not only did blacks serve in the Confederate Army but that they served in white units.

Many of them were body servants who accompanied their masters to the war. There were also those who enlisted in the "cause" and served the entire war.

The state of North Carolina recognized the service of these blacks when the General Assembly passed an act that is in Chapter 96 of the 1927 Session when they gave to these "colored servants who went with their masters to the war and can prove their service to the satisfaction of the county and state pension boards" two hundred dollars ($200).

In addition to finding these records in the North Carolina Troops, 1861-1865: A Roster, you will also find them in the records of the Auditor General, which are on microfilm in the NC State Archives. They are arranged by county, by years, and within the records they are filed by name of soldier who served, next by name of widow of soldier who received a pension based on her husband's service, and then the records of negroes who received a pension for their service.

On the following page are the names of Negroes who were listed in the first seven (7) volumes of the Troops books. My thanks to Rusty Koonce, of the Archives staff, for finding both the list, and the 1927 law, for me.

Rusty is our staff member who has put the 1885 pension (paper) applications on the MARS system. He is currently putting the 1901 series on the system as well. As he has gone through the files, he has corrected many of them so that when he finishes the index on computer will be much more accurate.

Civil War Soldiers Photos

If you don't have a picture of your Civil War (War Between the States) ancestor, write to:

Curator, Dept. of the Army
US Military History Institute
Carlisle Barracks
Carlisle, PA 17013-5008

If the collection includes a photo of your ancestor, you will be sent a copy of the picture along with the information about ordering a print. You may ask to have up to ten names checked at one time. The collection has 80,000 photos. As might be expected, there are fewer Confederates than Federals, but it is worth a try as new additions arrive daily. You will need to list your request by State, Regiment, and Company. Example:

North Carolina, 6th Regiment, Company C – ANDREW JACKSON CARROLL

If you do have a picture of your ancestor, they would like to add this to their collection. If you will loan the Department of the Army a photograph of your Civil War (War Between the States) soldier for copying, you will receive a complimentary print when your original is returned to you. The purpose is to have every photo of Civil War Veterans catalogued and available for researchers and scholars. Include information about your soldier, name, rank, unit, dates of service, birth and death dates, and any other important information. Please write first for a free franked mailing label to use in sending photos. Send to the address listed above. The veteran does not have to be in uniform and may have other family members in picture.

Note: A copy of the original photograph is preferred (this will be returned to you). If you have it copied locally, please have two negatives made and send one to them. This will make it easier for them to make copies for others.

William married 21 Jan. 1799 Wake Co. to Mary SCRIMPSHIRE and moved by 1800 to Cocke Co., TN. Nancy married 16 Dec. 1799 to Samuel LEE – and I have no further info on her and family. James stayed in Wake co. at least until 1803/04 and I cannot find further record of him.

CROWDER / LOYD / MARTIN / FLOOD/DOYLE

SPAIN / PERRY / McGEEHE
Seeking parents of Cathy SPAIN, granddaughter of Francis PERRY (will 1813 Wake Co., NC), who may have lived with her aunt Agnes PERRY MACEEHE (McGEEHE).

Mamie J. Gregg, 401 Brain Street, Borger, TX 79007

LOURY / PERRY
Seeking information on LOURY: Nathan, Rebecca, Mathew, Hixie, William, James, Lucy, and Gilly. They were the grandchildren of Francis PERRY (his will 1813 Wake Co, NC) and the heirs of James LOURY.

Mamie J. Gregg, 401 Brain Street, Borger, TX 79007

UNDERWOOD / HARRIS / KING / MOODY
Wish to correspond/exchange info with those researching the above northeastern Wake co. families. Some UNDERWOOD individuals are: William H. UNDERWOOD (b. ca 1829, d. 1898/1900); Jeremiah UNDERWOOD (b. ca 1804 VA, d. after 1881 Wake Co.); Cain UNDERWOOD (b. ca 1774 VA, d. 1860/1870 Wake Co.).

Seeking parents and other ancestors of Reuben HARRIS (b. ca 1731 in VA (?), d. 1792 Wake Co.) who married Mary "Molly" RAWLINS, 19 Oct 1785 Greensville Co., VA. Was probably his second marriage. Children were Faithy (b. ca 1780), Mary (called Polly), Cherry, and Elizabeth (called Betsy).

Trying to determine ancestors of Eliza P. (Peterson?) KING WILLIAMS UNDERWOOD (b. ca 1832) who married William H. UNDERWOOD on 9 Oct 1856 in Wake Co. I think she previously married W. Hardy WILLIAMS in Wake Co., 2 Dec 1848 and believe her maiden name to be KING (possibly dau. Moses and Elizabeth KING).

Seeking ancestors of Richard MOODY (b. ca 1841 Franklin Co. NC, d. ca 1880/1890) who resided in Little River and Wake Forest townships of Wake co. He married Tyresa Jenette EDWARDS, 17 Jan. 1870 and was son of Tobitha MOODY and Stephen YOUNG.

Donald W. Thompson, P.O. Box 934, Kinston, NC 28502

CHAMBLEE / BOLTON / MASSEY / SUTTON / CAROLL / HINTON / PIPPIN

Seeking info on CHAMBLEE/CHAMLEE/SHAMBLEE/CHAMBLY families in southern states, particularly NC, for exhaustive work-in-progress of their family, origins, migrations, history. Wish to have copies of all unpublished material, especially bibles and photos of CHAMBLEE ancestors. Possibly 6 Chamblee brothers settled around Wake County (early Bertie) and some migrated to SC, GA. One of them, Robert CHAMBLEE (wife: Hester) lived in Little River District in Wake Co. They had 12 children: Millie (m. MASSEY), Winny (m. MASSEY), Elizabeth (m. Sharon BOLTON), Sarah (m. HINTON), Benjamin W. (spouse unknown), James B. (m. Gloria MASSEY, Nancy PIPPIN), Rachel (m. John Daniel BAGWELL), John (m. Olive RICHARDSON and Delilah STRICKLAND), Jerod/Jarrod (m. Elizabeth CARROLL), Ruthy (m. Benjamin BOLTON), Polly (m. James BOLTON), William (probably m. Winniford SUTTON). Need info on MASSEY, BOLTON, HINTON, SUTTON families and above marriages. Also need info Elizabeth CARROLL's family and Nancy PIPPIN. Willing to share everything you need including documentation.

Utley Family Book Soon Available

A book on the UTLEY family of Wake County, North Carolina will be published in the Spring of 1992. It traces the family of William and Elizabeth (Turner) UTLEY from the first notice of them in 1741 in Halifax County, North Carolina through Edgecombe and Johnston Counties, and finally to Wake County when it was formed in 1770. Then it follows the family as it spreads westward throughout the United States. This book represents the work of many, many, researchers who cooperated with Mrs. Brink, included Dr. R. F. Wicker. Persons wishing to be notified of advance purchase prices and availability may write to:

Mrs. Joan Brink

Archives Updates

1920 CENSUS: The exciting news for May is the arrival of this long awaited census. Microfilm copies for all North Carolina counties and the index are now in the Microfilm Room.

A NEW LOOK: Thanks to a Friends of the Archives project, the Search Room will soon have a new look (and feel!). New chairs have been selected and will cost $200 per chair. Contributions are being solicited from individuals and organizations. Each chair will have a small plaque designating it was contributed by the Friends of the Archives. There will be a wall plaque which will list the names of the contributors. Contributions, designated for the "Chair Project" should be sent to:

FRIENDS OF THE ARCHIVES
North Carolina State Archives
109 East Jones Street
Raleigh, NC 27611

SUMMER VISITS: Summer for many is synonymous with vacations–and for genealogists that means research trips. Weekday activity at the Archives is expected to "pick up" with more visitors from other states. Some state organizations charter buses and bring 25 or more for several days. Ed Morris, Reference Supervisor, recommends that anyone planning a day trip to Raleigh during this period call ahead to be sure the Search Room is not booked to capacity. The number is 919-733-3952. Local members may also want to call before making that trip downtown to check on the space status.

HOLIDAYS: The Search Room will be closed on the two Saturdays which fall on holiday weekends, July 4th and September 5th.

CIVIL WAR SOLDIER'S SYSTEM

By 1995, twenty-eight Civil War sites operated by the National Park Service will unveil the Civil War Soldier's System, a computerized directory of the 3.5 million blues and grays who fought in the Civil War (War Between the States). A prototype system will be tested this fall. The Federation of Genealogical Societies is taking on the daunting task of entering into the computer by hand the over 3 million names and other information handwritten on literally millions of index cards by Army clerks during the 1880s. When the registry is programmed, family historians will be able to locate an ancestor's name and cross-reference it with the 7,000 regiments that participated in 10,500 military engagements, skirmishes and battles.
