About Our Journal

Wake Treasures is the journal of the Wake County Genealogical Society (WCGS) and is free to members. Semiannual issues are identified as Winter/Spring, and Summer/Fall. Past issues of Wake Treasures are sold in volume sets. An order form is inserted at the center of the journal and is also available on our web site.

We endeavor to regularly publish primary source documents with historical or genealogical significance for Wake County, North Carolina. We will also publish primary source documents from related counties if there is no Genealogical or Historical Society serving that county. We welcome articles about methodology and research experience as well as articles portraying Wake County residents, places, and events of the past. We seek a balance of time periods and hope to address the needs of both new and experienced genealogists.

Proposals and submissions may be sent by email or postal mail. References used to compile an article must be included. Depending on the nature of a submission, minor editing may be applied, but no substantive changes will be made. Errors in original documents that are transcribed should not be corrected, but notations may be made if they are clearly indicated.

Neither WCGS nor the Journal Committee shall be held responsible for the accuracy of submitted articles. This is the sole responsibility of the contributor. Documented content corrections that are submitted to the Editor will appear in a later issue.

Permission to reproduce or quote from an article published in any issue of Wake Treasures must be obtained in writing from the author or authors. Write to the specific author in care of WCGS.

A Message From the Editor, by Ron Springsteen

The title publication date of this issue is Summer/Fall 2001, a time of national tragedy, heroism, and resolve. The actual publication of this journal follows the anniversary of the events associated with 9/11. In the fall of 2002, our nation has responded remarkably in recovery, even as our economy struggles. We are concerned now with the ramifications of unilateral action or inaction in the face of other potential threats. We, like many of our ancestors, live in portentous times. We still have much to learn about the forces that affect the fundamental needs of people around the world and move those who would address them with compassion, pragmatism, or hatred. What shaped our ancestors' lives and times?

Our journal is struggling to recover its publication schedule. We are very fortunate to benefit from the efforts of journal veterans as well as new contributors. Jocelyn Powell has embarked on a new series featuring previously unpublished levy docket documents from the early nineteenth century. You will find some familiar series continued in this issue of Wake Treasures. Others will resume in subsequent journals.

We need your help to provide material that is of interest to you and potential benefit to others. We can all learn from publication of source records, personal research, useful resources, and experience. Help us make this journal yours.

Leaving Wake County, by Ron Springsteen

As a county dating from colonial America, Wake has seen many individuals and families move on. Most of our non-local members are descendants of these pioneers. It might be instructive to share information about ancestors who left Wake County. This is an opportunity for members and other readers who do not live around Wake County to contribute to the value of Wake Treasures.

If you aren't prepared to publish your family history, or haven't given it much thought, send us an article about this small piece of your heritage. You are likely to benefit from this experience, and the journal will benefit from your contribution. This might whet your appetite for publishing a more substantial piece of your family's story. For the benefit of other readers, as well as your own, be sure to cite your sources.

Don't wait until your family research is done to share what you have found so interesting. You and I both know that your research will never be finished. Don't worry about inexperience in publishing articles. This is how you get that experience. If you are interested, we look forward to sharing your story.

Wake County Levy Dockets 1805-1815, Abstracted by Jocelyn Powell

In the North Carolina State Archives in Raleigh there is a 2-volume set of levy dockets (cases of debt acted upon by the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Wake County) that have never been microfilmed. The following cases have been abstracted from the first book, found under C.R.099.310.2. The first case is transcribed in its entirety to demonstrate the format these cases followed; all others are abstracted. The amount of the debt was given in pounds, shillings, and pence unless otherwise stated. Names are reproduced as they appear in the records.

JUDD, Emiline vs. Henry JUDD
In Superior Court, October Term 1885, Pl was called and did not appear; the case was dismissed. Pl had alleged in her complaint brought on 11 Aug 1879 that she and Def were married "about 10 years ago in Wake County: and that they lived together as man and wife till about 2 years ago, when she was driven away by the deft." Def., she alleged, had abused and whipped her throughout their marriage, and his cruel treatment had gotten progressively worse. He threatened her life if she did not go away and never return, which she was compelled to do. She had 4 children by the Def; the 3 oldest were with him and the youngest, born since she left him, was with her. Def, she said, had a home of his own worth about $100, also some personal property that she helped earn.

JUDD, Henry vs. Emiline JUDD
The divorce was granted during April Term 1891. Pl alleged that he and Def were married in Wake Co. in 1868. He stated that Def left him in 1878 and committed adultery at various times with one Chunk [?] HENRY and gave birth to several children fathered by this man. The jury consisted of: J.J. JOHNSON, A.N. BLAKE, W.H. STROTHER, A.C. DAVIS, W.H.J. GOODWIN, J.T. LEARY, Frank NORWELL, Eli STANCIL, Green BURT, B.S. FRANKLIN, G. BYNUM, C.E.J. GOODWIN.

JUSTICE, Chessie vs. John JUSTICE
The marriage was terminated during September Term of Superior Court, 1910. Pl stated in her complaint that she and Def were married in Wake Co. on 5 Dec 1907. On 16 March 1909 they separated and had not lived together since that date. During the years 1908 and 1909, Def committed adultery with "one or more women in East Raleigh." The summons for John JUSTICE was sent to Wayne Co. NC where John was working "at some hotel."

KEITH, Christiana vs. John H. KEITH
The divorce was granted during January Term 1880. In her complaint Pl stated that she and Def were married about 6 December 1876 in Wake Co. Shortly after their marriage Def became unkind to her and abused her without cause and often threatened her life, until finally he was arrested for sexual intercourse with his own daughter by a former wife and was indicted for incest. Since the daughter did not appear to testify, he was discharged and soon fled the state. Upon his return about August of 1879 he promised to reform, and Pl took him back, only to have him return to his former abusive behaviors and worse.

KEITH, Emma vs. Elvis KEITH
The marriage was dissolved during February Term 1902. Pl stated that she and Def were married in Wake Co. in November 1898. In April 1899 Def left Pl and, while separated, in the months of February and March 1900, lived in adultery with Cora WILSON in the city of Raleigh. Virgil STONE was summoned to give evidence in the case.

KEITH, Fannie vs. Jeremiah E. KEITH
During October Term 1908 Judge Walter H. NEAL ruled that "the Plaintiff is not the owner and is not entitled to the possession or to any estate in the lands described by the complaint." Pl was to receive of the Def the sum of $60 per year for her maintenance and support. Pl alleged in her suit that she was the widow of Wesley KEITH, deceased, and that her said husband own 575 acres of land in New Light Township, Wake Co. By an agreement between her and her husband, the home tract of 141 acres, described in a deed from Wesley KEITH and Fannie KEITH to Jeremiah KEITH, should remain the property of Wesley and Fannie KEITH during the lifetime of each of them. In consideration of this agreement Pl joined her husband in the execution of deeds of gift to his children as follows: to Isaac KEITH, 135 acres, to Samuel KEITH, 135 acres, to Albert KEITH, 141 acres, to Henry T. KEITH, 24 acres, and to Jeremiah E. KEITH, 141 acres. The deed was not delivered to Jeremiah but was kept in the possession of Wesley KEITH and his wife, who was the second wife and stepmother to Wesley's children. Wesley KEITH died in 1891, and after his death Pl resided on the land until the winter of 1904-5 when, having permitted Def. J. E. KEITH and his family to move into her dwelling with her, her home was "made unpleasant" by the Def and his family and she went to reside with a neighbor. Pl believed she had a life right to the land and had no property or means of support. She brought this suit as a pauper. Pl requested that if the deed was incorrectly drawn it should be changed to give her a life right to the property, really less than 1/3 [a widow's dower] of the property formerly owned by her husband. Def refused to give Pl possession of the land and claimed said land as his own. Def countered that he had no knowledge of the agreement described by his stepmother and that he had resided on the land since before his father's death.

Samuel KEITH and his wife Ella KEITH, A.B. LASSITER, all of New Light Twp., and J.V. BALL (Franklin Co.) were summoned to give evidence in the case.

KELLAR, J. C. vs. Mit KELLAR
Both parties were residents of Cleveland Co and the case was transferred for trial to the Superior Court of that county on 28 September 1899. Pl alleged that he and Def were married in April 1893 in York Co., SC. They lived together for "something over a year" after which Def abandoned Pl without cause and had been living apart from him since then despite his repeated efforts to induce her to return. Pl was a resident of NC all of his life.

KELLY, Henry vs. Elizabeth KELLY
There is no final disposition of this case. During March Term 1907, Pl complained that he and Def were married in Wake Co. about 1876. Both had resided in Wake Co. since that date. They had no children. About 1898, Def left the Pl and had lived apart from him since that date - "for nearly 18 years". [I make it 8-9 years; perhaps they actually separated in 1888.] Def answered the complaint, saying that she did not separate from Pl "without cause". She was ordered by the Pl to leave, she said, and he threatened her life if she returned. He treated her in a "terrible and most insulting manner". During their marriage Pl often threatened and mistreated her, making her life miserable. For a number of years prior to her leaving the home Pl was living in adultery with one Lizzy HALL, who was living in the same house.

KEMP, E. H. vs. Iola V. KEMP
The marriage was dissolved during April court term 1907. Pl stated that he and Def were married on 26 January 1904. At the time of said marriage Def was and, Pl believed, continued to be naturally impotent. About 14 April 1904 Def left Pl and abandoned him. Bettie A. BUNN was summoned to testify for the Pl.

KING, Charles R. vs. Viola KING
The jury found in favor of the Pl and the marriage was dissolved during April Term 1890. In his complaint Pl alleged that he and Def were married in Rowan Co. NC in 1886 and lived together until March 1888. Def separated from Pl in 1888 and since then and for more than 6 months prior to this action had been a common prostitute in the town of Salisbury [Rowan Co., NC] and "kept an house of ill-fame". During the years 1888-9 she committed adultery with Benjamin CAUBLE, Donie TROUTMAN, a man named HALL, and with diverse other men in the town of Salisbury.

About Our Society

Wake County Genealogical Society, Inc. (WCGS) was organized in April 1982 to promote genealogical study and research, to serve as a medium of exchange of genealogical or historical information, to encourage the preservation of genealogical or historical records, to provide cultural, educational, and social opportunities involving genealogy. In 1983 WCGS was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the laws of the State of North Carolina.

Membership is open to anyone with an interest in the purposes of WCGS as stated above. The membership year is from January 1 through December 31. Annual dues are $20.00 for individuals and institutions and $25.00 for families (two people, related by blood or marriage, residing at the same address). A membership form is inserted at the center of the journal and is also available on our web site.

Members receive the society journal, Wake Treasures, in which they may place an unlimited number of free queries, and WCGS Updates, the quarterly newsletter. One copy is sent for each Family Membership. Persons joining prior to October 1 will receive all issues published for the current membership year.

WCGS meets on the fourth Tuesday of each month except June, July, August and December. Meetings begin at 7:00 PM and visitors are welcomed. See our web site (http://www.rtpnet.org/wcgs/) for current meeting topics and location.
