About Our Journal

Wake Treasures is the journal of the Wake County Genealogical Society (WCGS) and is free to members. Semiannual issues are identified as Winter/Spring, and Summer/Fall. Past issues of Wake Treasures are sold in volume sets. An order form is inserted at the center of the journal and is also available on our web site.

We endeavor to regularly publish primary source documents with historical or genealogical significance for Wake County, North Carolina. We will also publish primary source documents from related counties if there is no Genealogical or Historical Society serving that county. We welcome articles about methodology and research experience as well as articles portraying Wake County residents, places, and events of the past. We seek a balance of time periods and hope to address the needs of both new and experienced genealogists.

Proposals and submissions may be sent by email or postal mail. References used to compile an article must be included. Depending on the nature of a submission, minor editing may be applied, but no substantive changes will be made. Errors in original documents that are transcribed should not be corrected, but notations may be made if they are clearly indicated.

Neither WCGS nor the Journal Committee shall be held responsible for the accuracy of submitted articles. This is the sole responsibility of the contributor. Documented content corrections that are submitted to the Editor will appear in a later issue.

Permission to reproduce or quote from an article published in any issue of Wake Treasures must be obtained in writing from the author or authors. Write to the specific author in care of WCGS.

A Message From the Editor, by Ron Springsteen

What do you want to share in our journal? What do you know about Wake County that would interest others? As you can see, some of our members are sharing their activities and research. Bob Williams and Marta Guagliardo have both contributed articles before. Sharon Rae Gable is reporting some of her research here for the first time. What do you have to share?

As you know, we are behind our publication schedule for Wake Treasures. This journal, the first issue for 2002, is going to the printer in the closing days of the year. Your journal staff is working on catching up. We appreciate your patience. Please remember that our work is done on a voluntary basis. With your contributions, we intend to recover our schedule in 2003.

With this issue of Wake Treasures, we welcome contributions by staff members of the North Carolina State Archives and the Olivia Raney Library. These articles have in the past been regular features of our newsletter, Updates. Debbi Blake shares insights about the history of property taxes in North Carolina. Cathy Elias has compiled a list of publications that would be particularly welcomed as contributions to the Olivia Raney Library's collections.

The Olivia Raney Library is a remarkable resource for those of us with an interest in genealogy and local history. Our local members are aware of its depth of material and very helpful staff. Its holdings are rich in books, journals, computer resources, and document images for Wake County, North Carolina, the Southeast, and well beyond. If you are an out-of-state member planning a visit to Raleigh, be sure you pay Olivia Raney a visit. The state archives and library are almost certainly on your research agenda. I strongly encourage you to schedule time to visit the Olivia Raney Library while you're here. Check them out in advance through a link to their web site from our home page.

I wish again to thank our regular contributors, especially those who consistently abstract information about Wake County residents from records and old publications. In a time of pressing concerns in our society and the marketplace, their dedication is greatly appreciated.

The Reas of Wake County, by Sharon Rea Gable

Edward REA (1827 – 1895) sailed with his family from the port of Liverpool, England arriving in Portsmouth, Virginia around 1872. The immigration records for the port of Portsmouth, Virginia no longer exist so all we have to go by is the memory of Ernest REA who remembers coming to America when he was 11.

Edward REA was born 06 December 1827 in Dewsbury, Yorkshire, England. He was the third son of Thomas REA and his wife Hannah TAYLOR. Edward had two brothers, John and James. Edward also had five sisters: Elizabeth, Eliza, Marsha Hannah, Ann Taylor and Mary Jane. He left them all behind in Dewsbury when he married Esther PRICE on 14 April 1859 in the New Meeting House (Unitarian) in Kidderminster, Worcester, England. Esther (1829 – 1899) was the daughter of Joseph and Esther PRICE and, although we have no proof of it, family history tells us that Joseph and Esther immigrated to Australia at the same time that Edward and his family immigrated to the United States.

Edward and Esther had three children, all born in England. Ernest Hugh REA, their oldest, was born in Kidderminster on 27 June 1861. Their next child, Eva Agnes, was also born in Kidderminster on 26 February 1865. Their youngest, Nina Amy B., was born in Meriden, England. The family of five left the unrest in England, as Edward did not want his son to become "cannon fodder". It's not known yet if Edward's brothers were casualties of some war, but both John and James left widows in the mid 1860s.

The REAs didn't stay long in Portsmouth, Virginia, but traveled to Wake County, North Carolina, settling in Asbury and joining the Ephesus Baptist Church. Ernest, the oldest, married Fannie Lauretta JONES at the Ephesus Baptist Church on 08 June 1890. Fannie was the daughter of William Henry JONES (of the famed Bloody Sixth Regiment of the CSA) and Valerie A.R. HARPER. Valerie, the daughter of Joseph J. HARPER and his second wife, Mary Ann Cooke HAYES, was born in Louisburg, Franklin County, North Carolina. Having such a common name, William has been harder to track. Some records list him as William, others as Henry. He was born 14 April 1836 and died 28 March 1889. If it hadn't been for his family Bible, we wouldn't know much about him at all. He enlisted in Company I of the 6th Regiment on 28 May 1861 in Wake County, but we're not sure if he's from Wake County. He could have been from Franklin County, although there's also the possibility that he was born in Virginia, Petersburg perhaps. It is known that after William and Valerie married in Franklin County on 20 December 1866, they lived and died in Wake County raising their children, seven of whom outlived them both. It's also known from the family Bible, that William had a sister Ann who was the mother of Thaddeus PLEASANTS in Wake County.

Ernest and Fannie left Wake County and moved to Hamlet, Richmond County, North Carolina between 1901 and 1905. Work with the railroad moved a lot of families to Hamlet and Ernest was no exception. Ernest and Fannie had two children while living in Asbury (Walter Thomas and Lillian Esther), two more in Cary, Wake County (Bessie Waneda and Edward Henry), one in Cheraw, Chesterfield County, South Carolina (Albert Ernest) and four in Hamlet (Charles Alexander, Dorothy Louise, John Joseph and Leonard Hugh).

Eva Agnes REA married Wilmer Conrad WEDDING in Cary on 25 July 1885. Wilmer, also known as Connie, and Eva had seven children as documented in The Heritage of Wake County. Eva and Connie are both buried at the Ephesus Baptist Church graveyard adjacent to the church.

Nina Amy B. REA married Elijah NEWCOME in Cary on 14 May 1890. Elijah appears to be from Johnston County, North Carolina, but he hasn't proved easy to find. He died before the 1920 census was taken where Nina was listed as a widow in Cary. Nina and Elijah had at least seven children. The 1900 census listed Nina as having five children with three living (Beatrice, Vashti, and Clethro). In 1903, they had Eva and in 1905 Nita Elizabeth was born. Nita Elizabeth died in 1918, but the other four survived to marry and raise their own families. Although the author has found several leads to the NEWCOMEs on the web, there is still more research to be done on this family.

Edward and Esther REA are buried in the graveyard adjacent to the Ephesus Baptist Church along with the WEDDINGs. Nina is buried with her youngest child in the Piney Plains Christian Church graveyard in Cary, Wake County, North Carolina.

Ernest REA's family has scattered across the country. Ernest, his wife Fannie, son Walter, son Albert, and son Charles all lived and died in Hamlet, being buried in the Mary Love Cemetery in Hamlet. Lillian married James Carson BLAIR and died in Hamlet. Bessie married James Paul BROWN and died in Rockingham, Richmond County, North Carolina. Dorothy married James Frederick HARPER and died in Lancaster, South Carolina. John has left his widow Bonny in San Diego. Leonard and his wife Magdalene LOWE died in Rome, Georgia. And of course one had to return to Portsmouth, Virginia. Edward Henry REA (1901 – 1969) married Addie Margie HARRIS (1909 – 1999) of Hyde County, North Carolina in Portsmouth, Virginia where they lived and raised three children. Work on the railroad took them to Portsmouth. At their death, they left behind in the Portsmouth area one son, four grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, and eight great-great grandchildren to honor their Rea heritage.

This history of the Reas in Wake County has been provided by the granddaughter of Edward and Addie REA, Sharon Rea GABLE. She'd appreciate any additional information on the family or corrections to her data.

Property Taxes in North Carolina, by Debbi Blake

Land…it was what brought most of our ancestors to the shores of this continent. It was what they needed to survive here; it was considered a necessity for life in this vast wilderness. Our ancestors were willing to put up with a lot to obtain and hang on to land.

Taxes on land…they've always been a fact of life in North Carolina, right? Well, not exactly. The first tax on land was levied around 1715. The need for this tax was the Tuscarora War and its subsequent cost. A charge of two shillings six pence per hundred acres was levied on landowners. In 1720 this tax went to one shilling eight pence per hundred acres and in 1722 the tax was repealed. The primary form of taxation at that time was that of poll taxes or taxes on heads rather than a land tax. In 1777 the tax on property became permanent although the types of property varied and the rate of taxation varied as well. At the time of the levy, 1777, the amount was a half penny on each pound value of the land, lots, and other property. If a person failed to list their property they were subject to pay a double tax.

There are two types of property that might be listed on tax lists. Real property, that is land, was taxable, during certain periods, from at least the early 18th century. The value of the land or the amount of land could be taxed. The amount of land, of course, appeared in acres or lots--if in town--and the value appeared as the appraised or the assessed value. The other type of property tax was that on personal property. This type of tax was on a person's "stuff". The "stuff" that was taxable changed through time. After 1777, when this tax began, it was often levied on luxuries like jewelry and carriages. This was the case until after the Civil War.

One boon of property tax records to genealogists is the fact that white females (widows and single adults) and free African-American women sometimes appear in them. These women were responsible for listing and paying taxes on property, as well as, some polls.

Another boon of property tax lists to genealogists is that people appear in them that may not be the actual property owner. (Of course, this has a down side, too, if the researcher is looking for the property owner.) When a property owner died the taxes on his or her land were not forfeit. Therefore, the executor or administrator may be listed on the tax list, since they were responsible for the taxes. This is true for guardians, as well. It is even possible for the deceased to appear on tax lists for some time after death. Frequently, the abbreviation "decd" appears after the name. Obviously the deceased did not pay but his or her estate certainly did.

The main drawback of property tax lists is, of course, that the landless generally do not appear on them. Another drawback is that men often listed their wives' property and the woman remains hidden. But all of those who have done genealogy for a while run into those drawbacks all the time…and that is the topic for another day. For today we look at the value of land to our ancestors and pay the records, the tax records, which relate to them the respect they deserve.

Survey of Myatt/Smith and Williams Cemeteries, by Marta Guagliardo and D. Robert Williams

The information about these two cemeteries has been assembled by two members of the WCGS who are first cousins, Marta V. Guagliardo from Lexington, KY who did the mental research and D. Robert Williams from Chapel Hill who did a bit of physical research. They are both great-grandchildren of individuals mentioned in this article, H. Frank Smith at the Myatt Cemetery and Sion David and Elizabeth Georgiana Williams at the Williams Cemetery.

Myatt/Smith Cemetery

This is information on the Myatt/Smith Cemetery, established c 1800, located in southern Wake County at the intersection of Old Stage Rd. and John Adams Rd.

Buried in the smaller Smith area are the following:

A. Unknown with a metal foot marker and a large stone at the head.

B. Otha F., July 14, 1884 – Nov 15, 1922. He was the son of A. Turner and Amelia Myatt Smith who died in China and was cremated.

C. Hoke Smith, Aug 19, 1894 – Apr 21, 1895. The son of A. Turner and Amelia Myatt Smith.

D. Virginia Smith, June 26, 1895 – Nov 1, 1895. She was the 10th child of H. Frank and Mary Pherabe Myatt Smith (the sister of Amelia whose husband Turner was the brother of H. Frank).

In the larger section, which is the historic Myatt section, there are some Smiths also but they are in-laws.

1. H. Frank Smith, June 3, 1849 – Nov 9, 1921. He was the husband of Mary Pherabe Myatt Smith and the son of Alfred and Ann Whittington Smith from Chalybeate Springs in Harnett County and the brother of Neil Smith from Kipling.

2. William Acrill Smith, Aug 24,1885 – Jun 24,189(2)(7)?. He was 5th child of H. Frank and Mary Pherabe Myatt Smith.

3. This is the footstone for Lucy Elizabeth Smith Feb 11,1884 – Mar 13, 1885. She was the 4th child of H. Frank and Mary Pherabe Myatt Smith.

4. W. Alfred Myatt, July 10, 1812 – Oct 14, 1897. He was the son of Acrill and Ann Gilmore Myatt and the grandson of Mark and Mary Speight Myatt.

5. Amelia Harrison Myatt, Nov 23, 1830 – Dec 4, 1910. She was the wife of William Alfred Myatt and the daughter of Harrison and Mary Hinton Rand and the granddaughter of Walter Rand from the Garner area who was with Washington at Valley Forge.

6. Nathanial Green Myatt, May 23, 1853 – Jun 4, 1921. He was the 4th child of William Alfred and Amelia Harrison Rand Myatt.

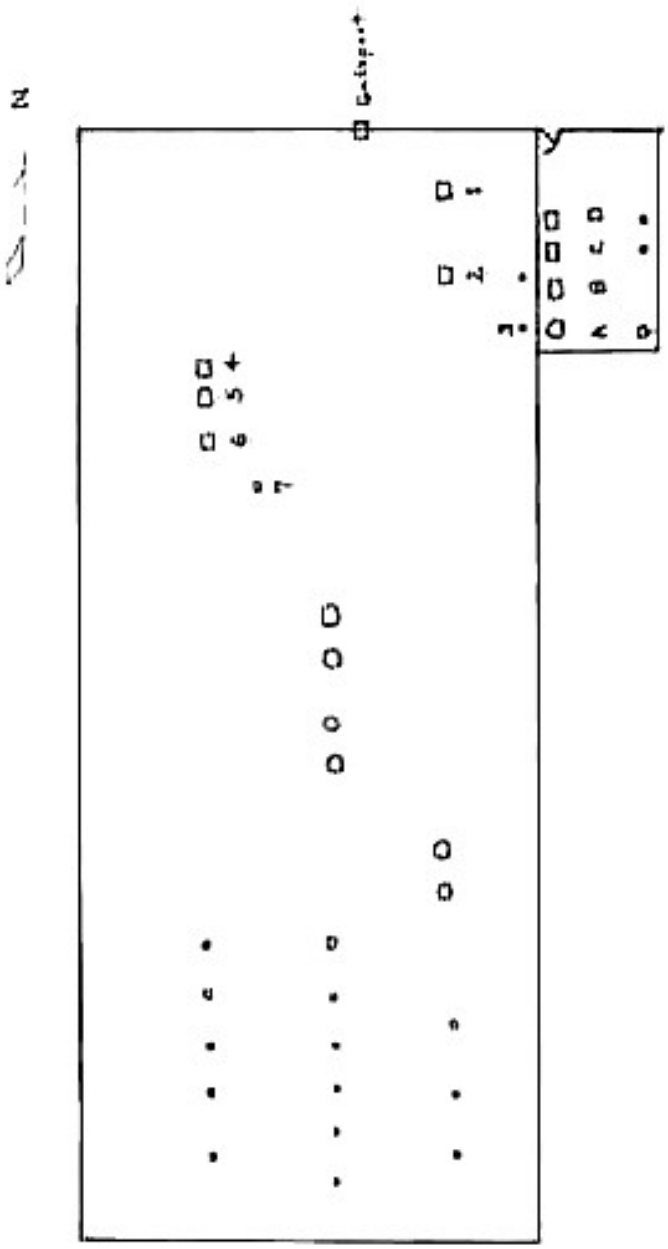
7. A footstone with the initials HM which is probably a Myatt.

The other square marks are large stones with sunken areas in the probable casket area. These were probably the earliest burials and because of the location and size were family elders.

The areas at the south end are crowded with small or no headstones and may well have been the slave area.

It is interesting to note the three straight rows of graves. All were, as the custom, buried east and west with the head facing the east or rising sun.

The gatepost at the north side is probably an original post from the early 1800s when the cemetery was established.



Williams Cemetery

These are the gravesites at the Williams Cemetery, which is located immediately adjacent to Old Stage Rd. about 1 mile north of Williams Cross Roads.

1. Hester Ann E. Newman, May 17, 1854 – Jun 18, 1917. Have not been able to place her in the tree, although Hester Ann is the name of one of the sisters in the preceding generation who married Williams brothers with that brother (Alfred Robert) owning land across the road from the cemetery. We know this individual died in Baltimore and was brought here for burial.

2. Hattie Williams, Jul 22, 1865 – Dec 22, 1896.

3. Minnie Williams, Sep 20, 1866 – Nov 23, 1918. Both 2 and 3 were wives of A. B. Williams who we can't place in the tree.

4. Minda, Jul 22, 1895 – Dec 29, 1895.

5. Clarence J., Jul 28, 1890 – Mar 2, 1891. 4 and 5 were children of the unknown A. B. Williams.

6. Simeon McClellan Williams, Feb 7, 1820 – Oct 28, 1898. The son of David Henry Williams whose father emigrated from Wales. He was the brother of Alfred Robert mentioned in 1 above.

7. Sarah Jane Page Smith Williams, Jul 1, 1828 – Dec 29, 1877. She was the wife of Simeon and the daughter of Sihon Smith, the Methodist circuit rider who did much for the establishment of the Methodist denomination in Wake County. He deeded property for the construction of the first site to the Methodist trustees in Wake County, witnessed the deeding of property at the corner of Blount and Hargett for the building of the first church of any denomination in Raleigh, and donated and helped build and preached at Holland's Church in Panther Branch Township. She was the sister of Hester Ann mentioned in 1 above.

8. Walter R. Williams, Aug 16, 1855 – Jan 17, 1876. The 6th child of Simeon and Sarah Jane Page Smith Williams. He died of meningitis.

9. Elizabeth (Bettie) Georgiana Atkinson Williams, Feb 2, 1861 – Dec 3, 1932. She was the wife of Sion David Williams and the daughter of George Washington Atkinson from Apex and the second wife of Justus Everett from Robersonville who returned to Wake County after he died.

10. Sion David Williams, Aug 12, 1851 – Jun 5, 1897. The 4th child of Simeon and Sarah Jane Williams and the husband of Bettie Georgiana Atkinson Williams.

11. George McKellan Williams, Jan 14, 1881 – Jun 14, 1943. The 3rd child of Sion and Bettie. He died of a broken heart when he heard that his son had been killed in the Bataan Death March.

12. Walter Wade Williams, Dec 16, 1879 – Jun 12, 1949. The 2nd child of Sion and Bettie.

13. Valeria J. Williams Carroll, Jul 10, 1876 – Feb 15, 1908. The 2nd child of Francis Marion Williams (Civil War veteran) and Elizabeth Johnson Williams (from Johnston County)

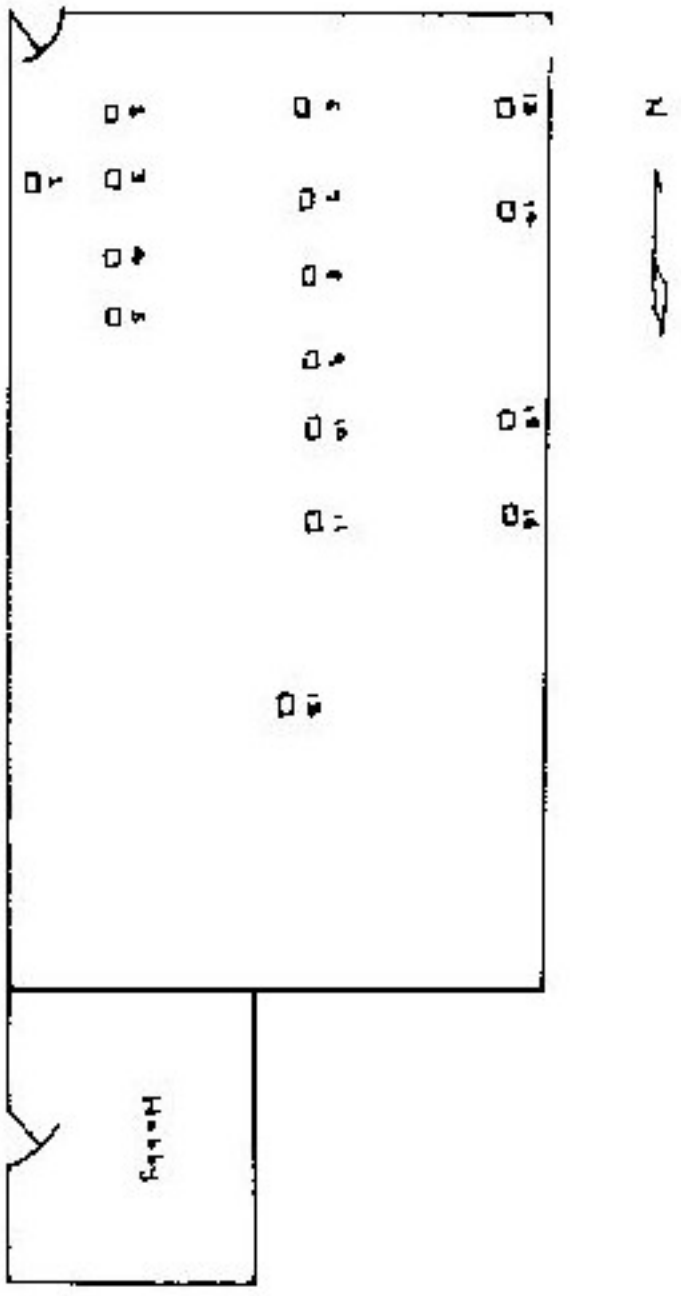
15. Maggie Williams Lee, Dec 26, 1876 (?) - ?. The youngest child of Francis and Elizabeth and the wife of W. Edgar Lee.

16. W. Edgar Lee, ? - ?. The husband of Maggie Williams Lee.



Olivia Raney Library Wish List, by Cathy Elias

To our friends in the Wake County Genealogical Society: following is a partial list of journal issues we'd love to have so that complete runs can get bound and appear on the shelf for our patrons. Some of these are runs that would take a large bite out of our budget if we have to order them. Many are issues that are out of print and can't be ordered. So, if you've been hanging on to back issues of your favorite journal or Society newsletter for years and can't bring yourself to toss them out, here's your guilt-free chance to clean house. You'll be doing your local genealogy library a big favor at the same time.

Many thanks, Catherine Elias

About Our Society

Wake County Genealogical Society, Inc. (WCGS) was organized in April 1982 to promote genealogical study and research, to serve as a medium of exchange of genealogical or historical information, to encourage the preservation of genealogical or historical records, to provide cultural, educational, and social opportunities involving genealogy. In 1983 WCGS was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the laws of the State of North Carolina.

Membership is open to anyone with an interest in the purposes of WCGS as stated above. The membership year is from January 1 through December 31. Annual dues are $20.00 for individuals and institutions and $25.00 for families (two people, related by blood or marriage, residing at the same address). A membership form is inserted at the center of the journal and is also available on our web site.

Members receive the society journal, Wake Treasures, in which they may place an unlimited number of free queries, and WCGS Updates, the quarterly newsletter. One copy is sent for each Family Membership. Persons joining prior to October 1 will receive all issues published for the current membership year.

WCGS meets on the fourth Tuesday of each month except June, July, August and December. Meetings begin at 7:00 PM and visitors are welcomed. See our web site (http://www.rtpnet.org/wcgs/) for current meeting topics and location.

How to Contact Us

Postal mail: All correspondence should be sent to WCGS, PO Box 17713, Raleigh, NC 27619-7713. For a fee of $5.00, you may request up to one hour of research by the "Please Help Me" Committee.

Online: Send email to wcgs@pobox.com. You can subscribe to our society mail list from our web site. Find us on the web at http://www.rtpnet.org/wcgs/

Change of address: Please notify WCGS of a change of address as soon as it is known so that your journals and other WCGS communications will reach you in a timely manner. There is a $3.00 charge for remailing returned journals.
