WAKE COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC. (WCGS)

WCGS was organized in April 1982 to promote genealogical study and research, to serve as a medium of exchange of genealogical or historical information, to encourage the preservation of genealogical or historical records, to provide cultural, educational, and social opportunities involving genealogy. In 1983 WCGS was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the laws of the State of North Carolina.

Membership is open to anyone with an interest in the purposes of WCGS as stated above. The membership year is from September 1 through August 31. Annual dues are $20 for individuals and institutions and $25 for families (two people, related by blood or marriage, residing at the same address). A membership form is available on our website. Membership dues received after May 31 will apply to the following membership year.

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

Meetings

WCGS meetings are held on the fourth Tuesday of September, October, January, February, March, April, May, and June. The winter social meets in early December. Meetings are held at the Olivia Raney Library beginning at 7 pm, and visitors are always welcome. For current meeting topics and location, see our website, wakecogen.org.

Members may view and/or download from the website any handouts from general business meetings by using the current password. Back Issues of both the journal and the newsletter are available for download on the website using the current password. There is also a Subject Index for the journal available. It is updated annually.

Newsletter – WCGS Updates

The society's newsletter is published quarterly and is used to communicate current and relevant events of the society and other societies, libraries and classes that are available in the Wake County area. The newsletter archive is available here, http://wakecogen.org/fileDownload.php?sid=1.

The North Carolina Genealogical Society 2011 Award for Excellence in Periodical Publishing for a newsletter published by a local North Carolina genealogical society was presented to Roslyn Panichas, editor of WCGS Updates. This quarterly publication is never printed, but is delivered electronically as a Wake County Genealogical Society member benefit. Its editor provides useful and timely information to WCGS members and always has content that will be helpful and interesting to all readers. Giving notice of current and noteworthy events of the society and other societies, libraries, and classes in the Wake County area, the newsletter also presents good articles and is a treasure trove for genealogists who enjoy researching on their home computers.

Journal – Wake Treasures

We endeavor to regularly publish primary source documents with historical or genealogical significance for Wake County, North Carolina. We will also publish primary source documents from related counties if there is no genealogical or historical society serving that county. We welcome articles about methodology and research experience as well as articles portraying Wake County residents, places, and events of the past. We seek a balance of time periods and hope to address the needs of both new and experienced genealogists.

Members access the journal archives through the Members Area portal, http://wakecogen.org/members.php.

A FREE-to-anyone Topical Index of all issues of Wake Treasures is free and available for viewing or download on the website: http://wakecogen.org/cpage.php?pt=18

The North Carolina Genealogical Society 2011 Award for Excellence in Periodical Publishing for a journal published by a local North Carolina genealogical society was presented to Hope Blackford, editor of Wake Treasures. Two times each year since 2005, Hope Blackford, who is soon to retire as journal editor, has created issue after issue of a journal that is full of names, history, and useful information relating to Wake County genealogy. This journal is chock full of abstracts, articles, case studies, a variety of genealogical tidbits, and much more. The journal is very well documented with sources for each and every article and abstract and is every name indexed. Wake Treasures is available also as an electronic version, accessible as a WCGS member benefit.

Message From the Editor

By Diane L Richard

Editor, Wake Treasures

WELCOME TO THIS EDITION OF WAKE TREASURES

With this edition we see a long-term series come to a close, for now – Wake County Wardens of the Poor. Carey Faison has single-handedly transcribed the years 1872 through 1883 (Volumes 21, Number 1 through 26, Number 2) of these records and his contribution has been invaluable. Thanks much Carey!

We continue to share with you Voter Registrations. We will eventually publish all the districts. This has been a massive undertaking and Hope Blackford's contribution has been invaluable in converting the OCR of the original transcription (as we had no electronic file to work from) into the format you see in the journal! Thanks much Hope.

We are slowly working on tax records and you will find some tax records from 1802 included.

We are starting a short run of some General Assembly Session Records petitions. These are such fun and informative documents. Unlike today when you can just file at your local court to get a divorce, for a period in North Carolina history you had to petition the General Assembly. Had some bastard children and want them to bear your surname? Well, you needed to petition the General Assembly. I hope you enjoy these rich and often colorful records.

Treasurer's and Comptroller's records are often overlooked by researchers. We share with you some "County Settlements" records which document marriage licenses, deeds registered, and more from a time period when Wake suffered record losses (e.g., 14 of the earliest deed books). These help fill part of the hole created when other records created are no longer extant.

Copyright© 2016, All Rights Reserved – Wake County Genealogical Society, Inc.

With the next edition, we will start including some of the wonderful work done by those who attended the Transcriber Training program held in March!

Volunteers are ALWAYS needed to help provide content to the journal! Whether you have 5 minutes or an hour, your contribution WILL help!

Sincerely,

Diane

In Obediance to an Order of the county court of Wake May Term 1801 We have proceded to lay off and divide a Tract of Land in Wake County lying on the ready Branch, Between Mofes Lafsater and William Davis after the following manner (to wit)

[1] This entry with Mofes Lafsiter and commifsioners is a great opportunity and reminder to talk about the use of "Long S" historically in writing ....
"ss" was often written as "ſs" where the ornate f-looking letter represents the so-called "Long s." An "f" is the simplest means of representing this now un-used "Long s." In this transcription, this manner of writing "ss" as "fs" has been retained when used by the original author. This is the easiest way to ensure that our transcriptions accurately reflect the original documents. afsembly = assembly, afsefsor = assessor, acrofs = across; ifsued = issued, Mofes Lafsiter = Moses Lassiter [note that the clerk actually used a "Long s" in Moses which was another option though more rarely seen], commifsioners = commissioners, etc.

November Is Thrift Month

Governor Bickett Appeals to the Farmers of North Carolina to Save Now and Prepare for Less Prosperous Days

To the Farmers of North Carolina:

"Opportunity has hair in front. Behind she is bald. If you seize her by the forelock you may hold her, but once permitted to pass, not Jupiter himself can catch her again."

So runs an ancient aphorism. This year Opportunity stands before the farmers of North Carolina with a forelock that reaches to the ground. You have with superb common sense increased your food and feed crops. You have with splendid foresight canned and dried your surplus fruits and vegetables. For you the high cost of living holds few terrors. Empyrean prices are being paid for the products of your toil. Never before in this generation, and possibly never again will there come to the average farmer so large an opportunity to lift himself and family to a higher level of happiness and hope. Temptations to fritter away the proceeds of your crops will crowd thick upon you. Improvidence will lure to sleep, and pleasure and prodigality will call to you with many voices. The "blue sky" artists are already on your trail. They have heard that you are fat, and have marked you for their own. All kinds of get-rich quick schemes will be dangled before you, and the voice of the agent will be heard in the land. Smooth and wordy vendors of lightning rods, and ranges, and organs, and pianolas, and sewing machines, and churns, and washing machines, and patent medicines, and county rights, and crayon portraits, and shares in excessively capitalized stallions will spring up around you as countless as the frogs that came upon the land of Egypt, and seek to enter into the reward of your labors.

A Good Country Home is Equipped With Waterworks and Electric Lights

In my Inaugural Address and in a series of bills submitted to the General Assembly, I endeavored to make plain a purpose to make life on the farm just as profitable and just as attractive as life in town. The intensity of that purpose has deepened with the passing months, and I now call upon the farmers to make a supreme effort in this direction, and to capitalize the opportunity of the hour. To this end I earnestly beseech the farmers of the State to set apart the month of November as Thrift Month, and urge every farmer to do something definite and substantial during that month that will inure to the permanent betterment of his condition in life. I suggest the following specific accomplishments and appeal to every farmer to do one or more of these things:

1. Buy a Liberty Loan Bond.
2. If he be a tenant to buy, if possible, a small farm and make the first payment on the purchase price.
3. To pay off all debts, and go on a cash basis next year.
4. To start a savings account in some bank or credit union.
5. To buy a milch cow or brood sow.
6. To install home waterworks and lights.
7. To paint his house.
8. To set out an orchard.

A GOOD FAMILY COW

LOWE'S GROVE CREDIT UNION
A Credit Union is a Valuable Asset to Any Community. It Develops a Spirit of Coöperative Purchasing and Saving

An Excellent Brood Sow is a Valuable Addition to Any Farm

The Agricultural Department, the Joint Committee on Agricultural Work, and the State Department of Education will generously coöperate with the farmers in making Thrift Month a notable month in the agricultural life of the State. I call upon the teachers in the rural schools to read this appeal to the children. Complete plans for taking a census during the first week in December will be arranged, to the end that we may know at the end of the month just how many farmers have redeemed the great opportunity that now confronts them and have preserved for their wives and children some portion of the blessings of this unparalleled year.

General Assembly Session Records (Petitions -- Nov-Dec, 1804)

Introduction by Diane L Richard

Transcribed by Christopher T Smithson

[Source: General Assembly Session Records, Nov-Dec, 1804, Box 2, State Archives of North Carolina, Raleigh, NC]

INTRODUCTION

Petition records are one of the great resources available to us, whether they are from individuals or a whole community they reflect grievances being brought before the government.

Earlier petitions have been indexed, in terms of their existence (and not the names of those who have signed the petitions unless the petition was for an individual), in the Manuscript and Archives References System (MARS) catalog, http://mars.archives.ncdcr.gov/BasicSearch.aspx though only through the 18th century. The only way to access the post-1800 petitions is by going to the General Assembly Session of interest and seeing what you find.

Online through the North Carolina Digital Collections, North Carolina State Government Publications Collection you can access the Session Laws of North Carolina from 1817 through 2011, http://ncgovdocs.org/guides/sessionlawslist.htm. Again, you may find the names of individuals who petitioned the State of North Carolina and you will not find the names for those petitioning as part of a large group.

The North Carolina Genealogical Society Journal has published a full-name transcribed series of petitions covering the years 1777 through 1785 in Volumes XXXVIII, Number 1 through XLI, Number 3.

Petitions are great on many levels and one being that they typically bear “original” signatures! Sometimes they are one of the few documents we can find in the earlier records where your ancestors may have “signed” something in their own hand (whether a signature or a mark).

Copyright© 2016, All Rights Reserved – Wake County Genealogical Society, Inc.

For this series in Wake Treasures, I arbitrarily selected the Nov-Dec Session of 1804 and looked for petitions involving Wake County residents. Now and in future issues of the journal, transcriptions of the found documents will be shared.

FOLDER: NOV-DEC, 1804, PETITIONS (DIVORCE, ETC.)

[Editor's note: This petition was transcribed keeping the exact same spacing and line usage as in the original document, see the image on page xxx. This is not always a feasible option when transcription since many documents were created on oversized paper or very small paper and when possible, it helps give you a feel for the "look" of the document transcribed.]

matrimonial life. That about ~~eight~~ three years thereafter she began to act with indecency owing to a deranged state of her mind. That she has continued so to act ever since and of late in a much greater degree than formerly in consigquence of the increase of her disorders. Your petitioner cannot ascertain whether this system of conduct has proceded from the deparity of her morality or from a state of lunacy existing in her mind. Her conduct at this time and or some time past has far exceded the bounds of decency and propriety. She appears not only to be lost to a due sends of shame on the presenation of her character in chastity. And likewise to the common indellects of human reasons. She does at times in a degraging manner prostitute her person and mind to all the wild indecencies of lunacy.
Your petition further states that he always has and still continues to find her in every comfortable enjoyment which his circumstances in life will admind. That he has taken bonds from persons having the charge of her persons for this purpose which he avers [sic] and

Raleigh, Dec. 3, 1883 – Willie G. Allen was unanimously elected Superintendent of the Poor and Work Houses, for one year, from January 1, 1884, and notified to enter into the required bond. The salary of the Superintendent was fixed at $600 per year, and 3 bbls. corn, 400 lbs. pork, 100 lbs. sugar, 50 lb. coffee, 2 bbls. flour.

J. N. Hubbard was unanimously appointed Night Watch at the Work House, for one year, from January 1, 1884, at the pay of $1.00 per night, with 16 lbs. meat, 46 lb. meal, and one gallon molasses, per mo.

On motion, the pay of the Guard was fixed at $15.00 per month, with the same rations as the Night Watch.

Raleigh, Jan. 8, 1884 – Willie G. Allen, Superintendent of the Poor and Work Houses, tendered his bond, which was unanimously approved and ordered to be recorded.

Wake County Treasurer's and Comptroller's Records (1789)

Transcribed by Peggy Baker

[Source: Treasurer's and Comptroller's Papers, County Settlements With The State, County Settlements, Union-Wake, 1773-1910, Box 86, Folder: 1773-1800, Wake, North Carolina State Archives, Raleigh, NC]

INTRODUCTION

A few years ago, I was introduced to the County Settlements sub-collection of the Treasurer's and Comptroller's Records. As we well know, following money is a tried and true way to learn more about ancestors and in what they were involved. A census enumerator may overlook a family. However it's more likely that a tax man collecting money or a person seeking reimbursement will be more diligent in their efforts.

Basically, the counties performed services for the state (e.g. tax collection, jailing criminals, collecting fees for the sale of liquor, etc) and then needed to be reimbursed for those expenses. This collection contains the paperwork submitted by the county to get "paid" by the state of North Carolina for the services performed. These are the so-called County Settlements. These files are organized by county (including counties that are now obsolete) and also the districts that existed (pre-1806). Each county typically has a folder or two that groups papers chronologically. My experience is that the contents are NOT in a chronological order so do examine the entire file for the family names that interest you.

Here are a few documents for Wake County (more will be shared in subsequent issues of the journal), that give you a sense of what you might find. This is literally a smorgasbord collection. Much of the paperwork does not mention personal names beyond that of the county court clerk, surveyor, or others who held official positions. In many folders you sometimes find information on who the sheriff has jailed or provided other services for, fees paid for marriage licenses (at a period when few marriage bonds survive), deeds that were registered (when court minutes and deeds are no longer extant), and much more.

These records can be of particular help when a county is "burnt" and no records survive for a time period.

When looking at pre-1806 records, also check the records for the associated district[2] [3]:

[2] Note: Account for any county formation post-1790, the relevant date of the above list. Additionally, recognize that for counties now obsolete Bute, Dobbs, Glasgow, and Tryon, they have both county settlements records and records might also be found in the district applicable at the time of the now obsolete counties existence.

The full finding aid – State Agency Finding Aid: Treasurer and Comptroller's Papers, 1731-1948, is found at http://digital.ncdcr.gov/cdm/ref/collection/p16062coll15/id/1459. It includes introductory historical context, an alphabetical list of included record types, and more detailed information on the holdings for each record type.

The records transcribed here are all from one, long document and reflect ...

- "taxes" collected regarding court suits as indicated by the xxxx vs xxxx format.
- list of marriage licenses. Do not confuse these with modern marriage licenses, they are more like marriage bonds. Unfortunately, we only know who is the "Licensee" (probably also the groomsman though that is not guaranteed). We do not know who the lucky bride is and if you seek to determine about when a "happy couple" in your family married, these records might help you pinpoint the year.
- deeds registered. Given that 14 of the earliest Wake County deed books are not extant, this list of grantor and grantees will at least tell you that a transaction took place, especially, if you appear to have "lost" an ancestor [maybe he moved after selling his land] or one mysteriously popped up [may have recently purchased land.]
