Wake County Genealogical Society, Inc. (WCGS)

WCGS was organized in April 1982 to promote genealogical study and research, to serve as a medium of exchange of genealogical or historical information, to encourage the preservation of genealogical or historical records, and to provide cultural, educational, and social opportunities involving genealogy. We incorporated in 1983 as a non-profit organization under the laws of the State of North Carolina.

Membership is open to anyone. The membership year runs from 1 September to 31 August. Annual dues are $25 for individuals and institutions and $30 for families (two people, related by blood or marriage, residing at the same address). A membership form is available on our website. Membership dues received after May 31 apply to the following membership year.

Benefits of Membership

Meetings

WCGS meetings occur year-round on the fourth Tuesday of each month, except November / December when the meeting is combined to the first Tuesday in December.

Members can view or download handouts from general meetings via the website. Back issues of the journal and newsletter are also available. A subject index for the journal is updated annually and available on the website.

Wake Genealogy Watch – quarterly newsletter

The society's newsletter is published quarterly to communicate current and relevant events to researchers. The newsletter archive is available here: http://wakecogen.org/fileDownload.php?sid=1.

Winner of the North Carolina Genealogical Society 2018, 2019 and 2020 Award for Excellence in Periodical Publishing for a newsletter published by a local North Carolina genealogical society.

Wake Treasures – bi-annual journal

Our journal is a rich resource of Wake County transcribed records and articles about the people and places of Wake County. We regularly publish primary source documents with historical or genealogical significance as well as primary source documents from surrounding counties as they relate to Wake County. We welcome articles about methodology and personal research experiences as well as articles portraying Wake County residents, places, and events of the past.

Members can access the journal archives through the Members area of the website at http://wakecogen.org/members.php.

A free topical index of volumes 1 – 25 is available to all for viewing or download at https://wakecogen.org/upload/files/Free_Publications/Indexes/Wake_Treasures_Index_1-25.pdf.

Winner of the North Carolina Genealogical Society 2000, 2011, 2019 and 2021 Award for Excellence in Periodical Publishing for a journal published by a local North Carolina genealogical society.

There are many more benefits of membership, including a surname database, special interest groups, and members-only presentation materials. Learn more here: https://www.wakecogen.org/cpage.php?pt=48

Message From the Editor

Donna Shackle
Editor, Wake Treasures

Dear Readers,

Welcome to this edition of Wake Treasures. I hope you will enjoy it as you prepare for the upcoming holiday season. This time of year is a good opportunity to get together with loved ones, and ask to hear some of their favorite stories from their past. Don't forget to write them all down, or record as you go along. You never know what you'll discover!

In this issue, Carla Stancil continues her vignettes on her Wake County ancestors, and shares the letters her father wrote while away from home in the Marines. You'll also read the Wake County Court Records (batch 6), Wake County Deaths in WW1, and the 1896 Tax List. Look for the continuation of the 1896 Tax Records, the Ferguson Family Ledger, and the Gertrude Weil Papers in the next issue.

Please consider joining the journal team. In order to make this publication possible, a team of volunteers works behind the scenes, and we need your help. Please consider sharing your Wake County ancestors or research for publication in Wake Treasures. We would love to hear your stories! There are also currently openings for a content curator and transcribers. If you're interested in learning more about how you can help, please contact me at journal@wakecogen.org.

Hope you enjoy,
Donna

Remembering Eugene Narron Allen

Carla Stancil

Carla Stancil is the president of the Wake County Genealogical Society and has Wake County ancestors. Her research and family stories have led to this interesting article, a part of a series of articles about her family. Look for the next installment in the upcoming issue of Wake Treasures.

Eugene Narron "Bud" Allen, my great grandfather, has always been an enigma to me, but I imagine him as a tall lanky man with jet black hair, eyes of steel, a gun on one hip and a knife on the other. From all accounts, he was a rough fellow from a dirt-poor family and had the criminal record to prove it.

Bud was born 03 May 1880 in the New Light area of northern Wake County. He was the 4th child of parents Henry J Allen and wife Armeda "Mezie" Huskey, who have proven to be as much of a mystery as their son.[1] On 04 July 1904, Bud married Elizabeth "Lizzy/Sissy" Ray in Wake County, NC, in the home of A.L. Wilson in New Light.[2]

New Light is Wake County's northern most township and sits just above Falls Lake. Many of my Allen and Ray family members are from New Light, an area long known for its moonshiners. The area has a mysterious nature and the natives of the period nurtured that attitude. They did not like outsiders and especially did not like "revenuers" as moonshine was a powerful economic force that stood between them and starvation. New Light was named for the rebellious Baptist/Moravian "common man" Christian who migrated to the area in the mid-1700s.[3] Rebellious is key here. Author and clergyman Charles Woodmason even called them the "New Light Infestations" and rebuked them for "spitting tobacco, leaving the service during prayer, whispering during the sermon, and not controlling unruly children".[4] New Light Township took its name from this religious group and has a creek in the area by the same name which empties into Falls

Lake.[5] The area was also known as "the Harricanes", a place where the only crops to survive were rocks and moonshine.[6]

Bud was a family man who raised eight children, but his alter ego was a bad boy. Bud supplemented his farm laborer salary by moonshining as a…well…moonshiner. Family lore has it that Bud produced some of the best "white lightening" around. He even employed family members to assist – his nephews, brothers-in-law, cousins, and his son Atlas. Atlas Allen was my grandfather and served as Bud's able assistant in the family business. My mother, Gladys Allen, managed "transportation" of the goods from the time she was big enough to sit on a Coca Cola crate to see over the steering wheel of a Buick.

Bud's luck ran out in the spring of 1927 when he was arrested and charged with manufacturing whiskey.[7] He was indicted by a Wake County Grand Jury at the April Term 1927 for Illicit Distilling. A True Bill was returned on 13 April 1927 and Bud pled guilty the same day. Prayer for Judgment was continued until the May Term 1927 with a bond of $300.00. On 9 May 1927, Bud was sentenced "to be imprisoned in the common jail of Wake County for the term of six months to be assigned to work on the roads of Wake County". He was given until 1 November 1927 to appear at the Sherriff's office to commence serving his sentence. About a month later on 9 December 1927, Bud was denied parole by North Carolina governor Angus Wilton McLean.

Bud and Sissy must have had quite the farewell before he departed for six months on the road crew; their last child, Marvin, was born 18 April 1928, just about the time Bud would have been released from the Wake County jail and road crew. Sadly, Sissy died six months later of heart and kidney disease leaving eight children including an infant. Bud was the informant on her death certificate.[8]

Bud and Sissy are buried next to one another in the New Light Baptist Church cemetery.[9]

Stancil Letters, 1947

Curated by Carla Stancil, Transcribed by Kate Gryson, Donna Shackle

Editor's Note: This is the second installment of the Stancil letters. Carl Stancil, a Marine from Wake County, writes his mother Ada often. This issue also includes a letter to Jesse, his father, from aboard the U.S.S. George Clymer. This series will be continued in the next issue.

Hi Pop,

How's everything going with you these days. Fine I hope as for me I feel great. Except I am a little hot now. How was your Xmas this year. Good I hope. I spent mine aboard ship at Pearl Harbor. But I still had a right nice Xmas. I spent new year's eve at sea. Well Pop, I'm going to be stationed on Guam. I might go to Siapan before I go back to the states. We don't know just yet. How's your teeth coming along? Pop, I had been planning to write to you again for a long time. But I just didn't have the time.

But believe me I'll take time from here on in. Pop, I guess mom told you about me making my first rank. Well that ain't all there's plenty more of them to come. It'll take days of long hard work, But if you have any thing these days you have to work hard for it, Well pop I guess I had better close for this time. May God bless you always.

Always your bebbie,

Carlie

Friday nite

Dear Mom,

How's every body getting along back home tonight. Fine I hope as for me I feel great. Well mom I got a letter from you, Eddie and Eric tonight. Sure was glad. We had a clothing inspection tonight and we are going to have another one tomorrow. Boy! We're kept plenty busy these days. I sure will be glad when I get that box. Sure do miss that stuff from home we can't get over here.

Tell daddy I said hello for me. And to be good and if he can't be good to be careful. Ha! Ha!

Mom, take good care of yourself. That's one reason I took out that allotment. So it would help take care of the things at home. That's the one thing I think about every day. Although I'm not there I want it to be a good home and everybody to be happy. I guess I'll get paid about the 5th. I didn't get paid as they had planned on the 20th.

That $20.00 lost me 2 ½ months. But I went without a lot of things that I needed. Well mom I guess I had better close for this time. May God Bless you always.

Love,

Bebbie

P.S. I wrote this letter in the dark. I hope you can read it.

Paris Island, S.C.

Dear Mom,

I have a little time left to write. It is Saturday morning and we just got off the drill field. That's all we do now. I have had it pretty hard since I have been in. And I will have it even harder when we start our training. Did Paul Davis ever get in the army? I weigh about the same but I have hardened my stomach has gotten littler. I am going to church in the morning. Mom I am going to have to cut all my letters short in boot camp because I don't have much time to write. Tell everybody back home I said hello and to write to me.

Love your son,

Carl

Dear Mom,

Well I am doing fine and working hard. Mom don't send me anything because I have everything I need. Tell Edith if she don't write to me I am going to tan her fannie when I get home. Mama I won't get paid until I get boat leave and that will be in Sept. So if there is any way you could pay Louise back before then do so and then I will pay you back when I get home. Mama tell Charles Henry to write to me. Give him my address and tell Aunt Flo and Uncle Elmond to write and then I will write them because I don't have much time to write. Mom [I'm] going to write to you if I don't write any bad, else in the world Mc[?]na we washed clothes yesterday. Mom I done some boxing yesterday too. I knock a guy out that weighed 225 lbs. I never tried to box before. The Sgt. said I done darn good to be the first time in the ring. But Mom don't worry, I ain't going take up boxing. I don't like it. But I had to box yesterday because everybody has to box one time while they are in boat. Well mom, time is getting short and I have to hit the sack. You know Bobby Tilton is just the next bunk over from me and that France boy is just two [or] three bunks over.

Love your son,
Carl

P.S. Tell Daddy and everybody hello and that I am always thinking of them.

Sunday Morning
Paris Island, S.C.

Dear Mom,

I have a little time to write before I go to church. Well I will be going to the rifle range next Sunday. Well mom, how is every body back home. Tell pop I said hello. Well it is a beautiful Sunday morning at Paris Island this morning. Well mom U haven't got buy six weeks to go. 3 weeks at the range and 2 weeks of mess and a week of school and then I will be home. Boy, does time fly. Well we went to a good movie for the first time tonight. Well mom it is getting pretty close to church time and I will have to close.

With Love,

Bebbie

Dear Mom,

Well how is every body back home. Well as for me I am doing well. Except I am a little sleepy right now. Mom I am on guard now. I am a messenger boy. I will be glad when I get off this watch. It is 3 o'clock in the morning. I have got 2 hours to go before I get relieved. Mom I got 2 letters from you and the box. I got a real easy watch this time there isn't much to do. So I decided to write you while I had a chance. The five was in one of the letters. Well I guess we will get to go to the PX today. We won our inspection last time. We got excellent. Mom don't worry about me. It took me a long time to find out that shit flows only one way and that is down stream.

Well mom I guess I will close for now. Tell daddy that he ought to see me now. Tell him that I am sitting back in the captain's office and there is a coffee pot on the hot plate. My lead just ran out so I will use the captain's pen.

Love your son,

Carl

Dear Mom,

Well how is everybody back home tonight. Fine I hope. As for me I am fine. Well mom I guess everybody is gone but you tonight. Well is won't be long before I will be coming home now. I am still up at the rifle range. Tell daddy I said hello for me. Tell Eric that I want to go to the square dance with him when I get home. Mom I have to write big because my arm is sore from some shots they gave me. Well mom there isn't much to write about tonight. Send Aunt Mat my address again. Call up Aunt Florie and tell her that if she doesn't answer my letter that when I get home I am going to tear Jones St. in so many pieces they won't know whether they are coming or going. Ha! Ha!

Well mom I guess I will have to close for now.

Love,

Bebbie

Thursday

Dear Mom,

I got your letter last night and was going to answer it then buy my drill instructor made us go to the movie so I didn't get a chance. Well mom I am still out at the rifle range. We are going to fire for record next Tuesday. I shot a 321 out of a 340 that is Expert Rifleman. I just hope I can do that good on Tuesday. Well mom, I hope you feel good today. As for me I feel fine. Mom, I know that I don't write you as often as I should but I don't have time while I am at the range. I will write you every day when I get back to the main base. Let me know if you got the last letter. Will close for now.

Loves ya!

Carl

Dear Mom,

Well mom I have a little time to write now. Mom when you send me them cookies you can send me a carton of Lucky Strikes. Mom, I wouldn't ask you to get this stuff. But I haven't been to the P.X. in a long time and don't know when I will get a chance to go. Well mom, how is every body getting along today as for me I am fine, Mom I am getting more time to write you now, So I will make up all that time I lost. Tell all the gang I said hello and to write to me. Tell daddy I said hello and that I said not to work too hard. And mom you do the same. Well mom how about cutting some of the scores of the Capitals and send it to me. Well mom I guess I will close for now as news is short.

With love,

Bebbie
